A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE LEGISLATIVE RESEARCH COMMISSION TO STUDY THE BUSINESS COURT PROCESS IN NORTH CAROLINA.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. The Legislative Research Commission shall study the process of designating cases as complex business cases and assigning them to business court judges, including the possibility of providing that appeals from complex business cases go directly to the Supreme Court. The Commission shall report its findings and recommendations, including any proposed legislative changes, to the 2013 General Assembly when it reconvenes in 2014.

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law.
