39 real property property, which interest is of record at the time that the 40 notice of hearing is filed and would be affected by the foreclosure
41 proceeding, but does not mean or include the trustee in a deed of trust

19 clerk of court at a time and on a date specified, at which appearance he 20 shall be afforded the opportunity to show cause as to why the 21 foreclosure should not be allowed to be held. The notice shall contain a 22 statement that if the debtor does not intend to contest the creditor's 23 allegations of default, the debtor does not have to appear at the 24 hearing and that his failure to attend the hearing will not affect his 25 right to pay the indebtedness and thereby prevent the proposed sale, or 26 to attend the actual sale, should he elect to do so.

27 (8) That if the foreclosure sale is consummated, the purchaser will be 28 entitled to possession of the real estate as of the date of delivery of his

41 the county where the land, or any portion thereof, is situated. In the event that the 42 property to be sold consists of separate tracts situated in different counties or a single 43 tract in more than one county, only one hearing shall be necessary. However, prior to 44 that hearing, the mortgagee or trustee shall file the notice of hearing in any other county

1 where any portion of the property to be sold is located. Upon such hearing, the clerk
2 shall consider the evidence of the parties and may consider, in addition to other forms 3 of evidence required or permitted by law, affidavits and certified copies of documents.
4 If the clerk finds the existence of (i) valid debt of which the party seeking to foreclose is 5 the holder, (ii) default, (iii) right to foreclose under the instrument, and (iv) notice to 6 those entitled to such under subsection (b), then the clerk shall authorize the mortgagee
7 or trustee to proceed under the instrument, and the mortgagee or trustee can give notice 8 of and conduct a sale pursuant to the provisions of this Article. A certified copy of any 9 authorization or order by the clerk shall be filed in any other county where any portion

14 may be appealed to the judge of the district or superior court having jurisdiction at any 15 time within 10 days after said act. Appeals from said act of the clerk shall be heard de 16 novo. If an appeal is taken from the clerk's findings, the appealing party shall post a 17 bond with sufficient surety as the clerk deems adequate to protect the opposing party 18 from any probable loss by reason of appeal; and upon posting of the bond the clerk shall 19 stay the foreclosure pending appeal.

20 (e) In the event of an appeal, either party may demand that the matter be heard at 21 the next succeeding term of the court to which the appeal is taken which convenes 10 or 22 more days after the hearing before the clerk, and such hearing shall take precedence 23 over the trial of other cases except cases of exceptions to homesteads and appeals in 24 summary ejection actions, provided the presiding judge may in his discretion postpone 25 such hearing if the rights of the parties or the public in any other pending case require 26 that such case be heard first. In those counties where no session of court is scheduled 27 within 30 days from the date of hearing before the clerk, either party may petition any 28 regular or special superior court judge resident in a district or assigned to hold courts in 29 a district where any part of the real estate is located, or the chief district judge of a 30 district where any part of the real estate is located, who shall be authorized to hear the 31 appeal. A certified copy of any order entered as a result of the appeal shall be filed in 32 all counties where the notice of hearing has been filed.

33 (f) Waiver of the right to notice and hearing provided herein shall not be 34 permitted except as set forth herein. In any case in which the original principal amount 35 of indebtedness secured was one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), or more, any 36 person entitled to notice and hearing may waive ~~after default~~ the right to notice and 37 hearing by written instrument signed and duly acknowledged by such party. In all other 38 cases, at any time subsequent to service of the notice of hearing provided above, the 39 clerk, upon the request of the mortgagee or trustee, shall mail to all other parties entitled 40 to notice of such hearing a form by which such parties may waive their rights to the 41 hearing. Upon the return of the forms to the clerk bearing the signatures of each such 42 party and that of a witness to each such party's signature (which witness shall not be an 43 agent or employee of the mortgagee or trustee), the clerk in his discretion may dispense

1 with the necessity of a hearing and proceed to issue the order authorizing sale as set 2 forth above.

3 (g) Any notice, order, or other papers required by this Article to be filed in the 4 office of the clerk of superior court shall be filed in the same manner as a special 5 proceeding."
