1	" § 15A-1340.13. Procedure and incidents of sentence of imprisonment for felonies.
2	(a) Application to Felonies Only. – This Part applies to sentences imposed for
3	felony convictions.
4	(b) Procedure Generally; Requirements of Judgment; Kinds of Sentences. –
5	Before imposing a sentence, the court must determine the prior record level for the
5	offender pursuant to G.S. 15A-1340.14. The sentence must contain a sentence
7	disposition specified for the class of offense and prior record level, and its minimum
3	term of imprisonment must be within the range specified for the class of offense and
)	prior record level, unless applicable statutes require or authorize another minimum )	sentence of imprisonment. The kinds of sentence dispositions are active punishment, intermediate punishment, and community punishment.
2	(c) Minimum and Maximum Term. – The judgment of the court must contain a
3	minimum term of imprisonment that is consistent with the class of offense for which the
1	sentence is being imposed and with the prior record level for the offender. The
5	maximum term of imprisonment applicable to each minimum term of imprisonment is, unless otherwise provided, as specified in G.S. 1340.17. The maximum term must be
7	specified in the judgment of the court.
	(d) Service of Minimum Required; Earned Time Authorization. – An offender presumptive range of minimum sentences of imprisonment specified for a class of offense and prior record level if it finds, pursuant to G.S. 15A-1340.16, that aggravating or mitigating circumstances support such a deviation. The amount of the deviation is in )	the court's discretion, subject to the limits specified in the class of offense and prior record level for mitigated and aggravated punishment. Deviations for aggravated or mitigated punishment are allowed only in the ranges of minimum and maximum sentences of imprisonment, and not in the sentence dispositions specified for the class of offense and prior record level, unless a statute specifically authorizes a sentence

-	dispositional deviation.

1	(f) Suspension of Sentence. – Unless otherwise provided, the court may no
2	suspend the sentence of imprisonment if the class of offense and prior record level doe
3	not permit community or intermediate punishment as a sentence disposition. The cour
4	must suspend the sentence of imprisonment if the class of offense and prior record leve
5	requires community or intermediate punishment as a sentence disposition. The cour
6	may suspend the sentence of imprisonment if the class of offense and prior record level
7	authorizes, but does not require, active punishment as a sentence disposition.
8	(g) Dispositional Deviation for Extraordinary Mitigation. – Except as provided in
9	subsection (g1) of this section, the court may impose an intermediate punishment for
10	class of offense and prior record level that requires the imposition of an active	e
11	punishment if it finds in writing:
12	(1) That extraordinary mitigating factors of a kind significantly greate	:r

20	its judgment.
21	(g1) Exceptions When Extraordinary Mitigation May Not Be Used. – The cour	rt

27	" § 15A-1340.14. Prior record level for felony sentencing.
28	(a) Generally. – The prior record level of a felony offender is determined by	-
29	calculating the sum of the points assigned to each of the offender's prior convictions that	it
30	the court finds to have been proved in accordance with this section.
31	(b) Points. – Points are assigned as follows:
32	(1) For each prior felony Class A conviction, 10 points.
33	(2) For each prior felony Class B, C, or D conviction, 6 points.
34	(3) For each prior felony Class E, F, or G conviction, 4 points.
35	(4) For each prior felony Class H or I conviction, 2 points.
36	(5) For each prior misdemeanor conviction, 1 point.

8 9	(d) Multiple Prior Convictions Obtained in One Court Week. – For purposes of 9 10
	determining the prior record level, if an offender is convicted of more than one offense
11	in a single court during one calendar week, only the conviction for the offense with the
12	highest point total is used.
13	(e) Classification of Prior Convictions From Other Jurisdictions. – Except as
14	otherwise provided in this subsection, a conviction occurring in a jurisdiction other than
15	North Carolina is classified as a Class I felony if the jurisdiction in which the offense
16	occurred classifies the offense as a felony, or is classified as a misdemeanor if the
17	jurisdiction in which the offense occurred classifies the offense as a misdemeanor. If
18	the offender proves by the preponderance of the evidence that an offense classified as a
19 20	felony in the other jurisdiction is substantially similar to an offense that is a
20	misdemeanor in North Carolina, the conviction is treated as a misdemeanor for
21	assigning prior record level points. If the State proves by the preponderance of the
22	evidence that an offense is substantially similar to an offense in North Carolina
23	classified higher than a Class I felony, the conviction is treated as the higher class of
24	felony for assigning prior record level points.
25 26	(f) Proof of Prior Convictions. – A prior conviction may be proved by:
26	(1) Stipulation of the parties; (2) An original or some of the court record of the prior conviction:

40	containing a reproduction of a record maintained electronically on a computer or other

42	prosecutor shall make all feasible efforts to obtain and present to the court the offender's

3	by the defendant in compliance with G.S. 15A-903, the prosecutor must furnish the
4	defendant's prior criminal record within a reasonable time sufficient to allow the
5	defendant to determine if the record available to the prosecutor is accurate.
6	" § 15A-1340.15. Multiple convictions.
7	(a) Consecutive Sentences. – This Article does not prohibit the imposition of
8	consecutive sentences. Unless otherwise specified, all sentences of imprisonment run
9	concurrently with any other sentences of imprisonment.
10	(b) Consolidation of Sentences. – If an offender is convicted of more than one
11	offense at the same time, the court may consolidate the offenses for judgment and
12	impose a single judgment for the consolidated offenses. The judgment must contain a
13	sentence disposition specified for the class of offense and prior record level of the most
14	serious offense, and its minimum sentence of imprisonment must be within the ranges
15	specified for that class of offense and prior record level, unless applicable statutes
16	require or authorize another minimum sentence of imprisonment.
17	"§ 15A-1340.16. Aggravated and mitigated sentences.
18	(a) Generally, Burden of Proof The court shall consider evidence of
19	aggravating or mitigating factors present in the offense which make an aggravated or
20	mitigated sentence appropriate, but the decision to depart from the presumptive range is
21	in the discretion of the court. The State bears the burden of proving by a preponderance
22	of the evidence that an aggravating factor exists and the offender bears the burden of
23	proving by a preponderance of the evidence that a mitigating factor exists.
24	(b) When Aggravated or Mitigated Sentence Allowed. – If the court finds that
25	aggravating or mitigating factors exist, it may depart from the presumptive range of
26	sentences specified in G.S. 15A-1340.17(c)(2). If the court finds that aggravating
27	factors are present and are sufficient to outweigh any mitigating factors that are present,
28	it may impose a sentence that is permitted by the aggravated range described in G.S.
29	15A-1340.17(c)(4). If the court finds that mitigating factors are present and are
30	sufficient to outweigh any aggravating factors that are present, it may impose a sentence
31	that is permitted by the mitigated range described in G.S. 15A-1340.17(c)(3).
32	(c) Written Findings; When Required. – The court shall make findings of the
33	aggravating and mitigating factors present in the offense only if, in its discretion, it
34	departs from the presumptive range of sentences specified in G.S. 15A-1340.17(c)(2).
35	Findings shall be in writing. The requirement to make findings in order to depart from
36	the presumptive range applies regardless of whether the sentence of imprisonment is
37	activated or suspended.
38	(d) Aggravating Factors. – The following are aggravating factors:

33	good cause for not allowing confrontation. If the person holding the hearing determines
34	there is probable cause to believe the supervisee violated his conditions of supervision,
35	he must summarize the reasons for his determination and the evidence he relied on.
36	Formal rules of evidence do not apply at the hearing. If probable cause is found, the
