"§ 162-60. Reduction in sentence allowed for work. 1 2 In addition to any earned time credit a prisoner may be awarded under G.S. 15A-1340.20, a 3 A prisoner who has faithfully performed the duties assigned to him pursuant to G.S. 4 162-58 is entitled to a reduction in his sentence of four days for each 30 days of work performed. The person having custody of the prisoner, as defined in G.S. 162-59, shall 5 be the sole judge as to whether the prisoner has faithfully performed his duties. A 6 7 prisoner who escapes or attempts to escape while performing work pursuant to G.S. 8 162-58 shall forfeit any reduction in sentence that he would have been entitled to under this section." 9 10 Sec. 3. G.S. 153A-230.3(b) reads as rewritten: "(b) Operation of Satellite Jail/Work Release Unit. – A county or group 11 12 of counties operating a satellite jail/work release unit shall comply with the following 13 requirements concerning operation of the unit: 14 The county shall make every effort to ensure that at least eighty (1)percent (80%) of the unit occupants shall be employed and on work 15 release, and that the remainder shall earn their keep by working at the 16 unit on maintenance and other jobs related to the upkeep and operation 17 of the unit or by assignment to community service work, and that 18 19 alcohol and drug rehabilitation be available through community 20 resources. 21 (2)The county shall require the occupants to give their earnings, less 22 standard payroll deductions required by law and premiums for group 23 health insurance coverage, to the Sheriff. The county may charge a per day charge from those occupants who are employed or otherwise 24 25 able to pay from other resources available to the occupants. The per 26 day charge shall be calculated based on the following formula: The charge shall be either the amount that the Department of Correction 27 28 deducts from a prisoner's work-release earnings to pay for the cost of the prisoner's keep or fifty percent (50%) of the occupant's net weekly 29 30 income, whichever is greater, but in no event may the per day charge 31 exceed an amount that is twice the amount that the Department of 32 Correction pays each local confinement facility for the cost of 33 providing food, clothing, personal items, supervision, and necessary 34 ordinary medical expenses. The per day charge may be adjusted on an individual basis where restitution and/or child support has been 35 36 ordered, or where the occupant's salary or resources are insufficient to 37 pay the charge. 38 The county also shall accumulate a reasonable sum from the 39 earnings of the occupant to be returned to him when he is released 40 from the unit. The county also shall follow the guidelines established 41 for the Department of Correction in G.S. 148-33.1(f) for determining 42 the amount and order of disbursements from the occupant's earnings.

44	PART 2. LENG	GTHS OF PROBATION PERIODS

1 2 Sec. 6. G.S. 15A-1342(a) reads as rewritten: Period. - The court may place a convicted offender on probation for the 3 "(a) appropriate period as specified in G.S. 15A-1343.2(d), not to exceed a maximum of five 4 5 years. The court may place a defendant as to whom prosecution has been deferred on 6 probation for a maximum of two years. The probation remains conditional and subject 7 to revocation during the period of probation imposed, unless terminated as provided in 8 subsection (b) or G.S. 15A-1341(c). 9 Extension. - The court with the consent of the defendant may extend the period of 10 probation beyond five years the original period (i) for the purpose of allowing the defendant to complete a program of restitution, or (ii) to allow the defendant to continue 11 12 medical or psychiatric treatment ordered as a condition of the probation. The period of 13 extension shall not exceed three years beyond the original period of probation. The 14 special extension authorized herein may be ordered only in the last six months of the 15 probation term. original period of probation. Any probationary judgment form provided 16 to a defendant on supervised probation shall state that probation may be extended 17 pursuant to this subsection." 18 Sec. 7. G.S. 15A-1351(a) reads as rewritten: 19 "(a) The judge may sentence to special probation a defendant convicted of a 20 criminal offense other than impaired driving under G.S. 20-138.1, if based on the 21 defendant's prior record or conviction level as found pursuant to Article 81B of this 22 Chapter, an intermediate punishment is authorized for the class of offense of which the 23 defendant has been convicted. A defendant convicted of impaired driving under G.S. 24 20-138.1 may also be sentenced to special probation. Under a sentence of special 25 probation, the court may suspend the term of imprisonment and place the defendant on probation as provided in Article 82, Probation, and in addition require that the defendant 26 27 submit to a period or periods of imprisonment in the custody of the Department of Correction or a designated local confinement or treatment facility at whatever time or 28 29 intervals within the period of probation, consecutive or nonconsecutive, the court 30 determines. In addition to any other conditions of probation which the court may impose, the court shall impose, when imposing a period or periods of imprisonment as a 31 32 condition of special probation, the condition that the defendant obey the Rules and Regulations of the Department of Correction governing conduct of inmates, and this 33 condition shall apply to the defendant whether or not the court imposes it as a part of the 34 35 written order. If imprisonment is for continuous periods, the confinement may be in the 36 custody of either the Department of Correction or a local confinement facility. 37 Noncontinuous periods of imprisonment under special probation may only be served in 38 a designated local confinement or treatment facility. Except for probationary sentences 39 of impaired driving under G.S. 20-138.1, the total of all periods of confinement imposed as an incident of special probation, but not including an activated suspended sentence, 40 may not exceed six months or one fourth the maximum sentence of imprisonment 41 42 imposed for the offense, whichever is less, and no confinement other than an activated suspended sentence may be required beyond two years of conviction. For probationary 43 44 sentences for impaired driving under G.S. 20-138.1, the total of all periods of confinement imposed as an incident of special probation, but not including an activated 1 2 suspended sentence, shall not exceed one-fourth the maximum penalty allowed by law. 3 In imposing a sentence of special probation, the judge may credit any time spent committed or confined, as a result of the charge, to either the suspended sentence or to 4 5 the imprisonment required for special probation. The original period of probation, 6 including the period of imprisonment required for special probation, shall be as 7 specified in G.S. 15A-1343.2(d), but may not exceed a maximum of five years, except 8 as provided by G.S. 15A-1342(a). The court may revoke, modify, or terminate special 9 probation as otherwise provided for probationary sentences." 10 Sec. 8. G.S. 15A-1343.2(d) reads as rewritten: 11 Lengths of Probation Terms Under Structured Sentencing. - Unless the court "(d) 12 makes specific findings that longer or shorter periods of probation are necessary, the 13 length of the term-original period of probation for offenders sentenced under Article 81B 14 shall be as follows: 15 (1) For misdemeanants sentenced to community punishment, not less than 16 six nor more than 18 months: 17 (2)For misdemeanants sentenced to intermediate punishment, not less 18 than 12 nor more than 24 months; 19 (3) For felons sentenced to community punishment, not less than 12 nor 20 more than 30 months; and 21 (4) For felons sentenced to intermediate punishment, not less than 18 nor 22 more than 36 months. 23 If the court finds at the time of sentencing that a longer period of probation is necessary. 24 that period may not exceed a maximum of five years, as specified in G.S. 15A-1342 and 25 G.S. 15A-1351. 26 Extension. – The court may with the consent of the offender extend the original term 27 period of the probation if necessary to complete a program of restitution or to complete medical or psychiatric treatment ordered as a condition of probation. This extension 28 29 may be for no more than three years, and may only be ordered in the last six months of 30 the original probation term. period of probation." 31 32 PART 3. EXTEND LENGTH OF CONFINEMENT ON SPECIAL PROBATION FOR 33 SENTENCES TO IMPACT 34 35 Sec. 9. G.S. 15A-1344(e) reads as rewritten: 36 "(e) Special Probation in Response to Violation. – When a defendant has violated a condition of probation, the court may modify his probation to place him on special 37 38 probation as provided in this subsection. In placing him on special probation, the court 39 may continue or modify the conditions of his probation and in addition require that he submit to a period or periods of imprisonment, either continuous or noncontinuous, at 40 whatever time or intervals within the period of probation the court determines. In 41 42 addition to any other conditions of probation which the court may impose, the court shall impose, when imposing a period or periods of imprisonment as a condition of 43 44 special probation, the condition that the defendant obey the Rules and Regulations of the Department of Correction governing conduct of inmates, and this condition shall 1 2 apply to the defendant whether or not the court imposes it as a part of the written order. 3 If imprisonment is for continuous periods, the confinement may be in either the custody of the Department of Correction or a local confinement facility. Noncontinuous periods 4 5 of imprisonment under special probation may only be served in a designated local confinement or treatment facility. Except for probationary sentences for impaired 6 7 driving under G.S. 20-138.1, 20-138.1 and probationary sentences which include a 8 period of imprisonment in the Intensive Motivational Program of Alternative 9 Correctional Treatment (IMPACT) under G.S. 15A-1343(b1)(2a), the total of all 10 periods of confinement imposed as an incident of special probation, but not including an activated suspended sentence, may not exceed six months or one fourth the maximum 11 12 sentence of imprisonment imposed for the offense, whichever is less. For probationary 13 sentences for impaired driving under G.S. 20-138.1, the total of all periods of 14 confinement imposed as an incident of special probation, but not including an activated 15 suspended sentence, shall not exceed one-fourth the maximum penalty allowed by law. 16 For probationary sentences which include a period of imprisonment in the Intensive 17 Motivational Program of Alternative Correctional Treatment (IMPACT) under G.S. 18 15A-1343(b1)(2a), the total of all periods of confinement imposed as an incident of special probation, but not including an activated suspended sentence, shall not exceed 19 20 six months or one-half the maximum term of the suspended sentence of imprisonment, 21 whichever is less. No confinement other than an activated suspended sentence may be required beyond the period of probation or beyond two years of the time the special 22 23 probation is imposed, whichever comes first." Sec. 10. G.S. 15A-1351(a), as amended by Section 7 of this act, reads as 24 25 rewritten:

26 "(a) The judge may sentence to special probation a defendant convicted of a 27 criminal offense other than impaired driving under G.S. 20-138.1, if based on the 28 defendant's prior record or conviction level as found pursuant to Article 81B of this 29 Chapter, an intermediate punishment is authorized for the class of offense of which the 30 defendant has been convicted. A defendant convicted of impaired driving under G.S. 31 20-138.1 may also be sentenced to special probation. Under a sentence of special probation, the court may suspend the term of imprisonment and place the defendant on 32 probation as provided in Article 82, Probation, and in addition require that the defendant 33 submit to a period or periods of imprisonment in the custody of the Department of 34 35 Correction or a designated local confinement or treatment facility at whatever time or intervals within the period of probation, consecutive or nonconsecutive, the court 36 determines. In addition to any other conditions of probation which the court may 37 38 impose, the court shall impose, when imposing a period or periods of imprisonment as a 39 condition of special probation, the condition that the defendant obey the Rules and 40 Regulations of the Department of Correction governing conduct of inmates, and this condition shall apply to the defendant whether or not the court imposes it as a part of the 41 42 written order. If imprisonment is for continuous periods, the confinement may be in the custody of either the Department of Correction or a local confinement facility. 43 44 Noncontinuous periods of imprisonment under special probation may only be served in a designated local confinement or treatment facility. Except for probationary sentences 1 of impaired driving under G.S. 20-138.1, 20-138.1 and probationary sentences which 2 3 include a period of imprisonment in the Intensive Motivational Program of Alternative Correctional Treatment (IMPACT) under G.S. 15A-1343(b1)(2a), the total of all 4 5 periods of confinement imposed as an incident of special probation, but not including an 6 activated suspended sentence, may not exceed six months or one fourth the maximum 7 sentence of imprisonment imposed for the offense, whichever is less, and no 8 confinement other than an activated suspended sentence may be required beyond two 9 years of conviction. For probationary sentences for impaired driving under G.S. 20-10 138.1, the total of all periods of confinement imposed as an incident of special probation, but not including an activated suspended sentence, shall not exceed one-11 12 fourth the maximum penalty allowed by law. For probationary sentences which include a period of imprisonment in the Intensive Motivational Program of Alternative 13 14 Correctional Treatment (IMPACT) under G.S. 15A-1343(b1)(2a), the total of all 15 periods of confinement imposed as an incident of special probation, but not including an activated suspended sentence, shall not exceed six months or one-half of the maximum 16 17 term of the suspended sentence, whichever is less. In imposing a sentence of special 18 probation, the judge may credit any time spent committed or confined, as a result of the charge, to either the suspended sentence or to the imprisonment required for special 19 20 The original period of probation, including the period of imprisonment probation. 21 required for special probation, shall be as specified in G.S. 15A-1343.2(d), but may not exceed a maximum of five years, except as provided by G.S. 15A-1342(a). The court 22 23 may revoke, modify, or terminate special probation as otherwise provided for 24 probationary sentences." 25 26 PART 4. COUNTING MULTIPLE PRIOR CONVICTIONS 27 28 Sec. 11. G.S. 15A-1340.14(d) reads as rewritten: 29 "(d) Multiple Prior Convictions Obtained in One Court Week. - For purposes of 30 determining the prior record level, if an offender is convicted of more than one offense in a single superior court during one calendar week, only the conviction for the offense 31 with the highest point total is used. If an offender is convicted of more than one offense in a single session of district court, only one of the convictions is used."

35 PART 5. CLASSIFYING PRIOR MISDEMEANOR CONVICTIONS FROM OTHER36 JURISDICTIONS

- 37
- 38

Sec. 12. G.S. 15A-1340.14(e) reads as rewritten:

39 "(e) Classification of Prior Convictions From Other Jurisdictions. – Except as 40 otherwise provided in this subsection, a conviction occurring in a jurisdiction other than 41 North Carolina is classified as a Class I felony if the jurisdiction in which the offense 42 occurred classifies the offense as a felony, or is classified as a Class 3 misdemeanor if 43 the jurisdiction in which the offense occurred classifies the offense as a misdemeanor. 44 If the offender proves by the preponderance of the evidence that an offense classified as a felony in the other jurisdiction is substantially similar to an offense that is a 1 2 misdemeanor in North Carolina, the conviction is treated as a that class of misdemeanor 3 for assigning prior record level points. If the State proves by the preponderance of the evidence that an offense classified as either a misdemeanor or a felony in the other 4 5 jurisdiction is substantially similar to an offense in North Carolina that is classified 6 higher than a Class I felony, as a Class I felony or higher, the conviction is treated as the 7 higher-that class of felony for assigning prior record level points. If the State proves by 8 the preponderance of the evidence that an offense classified as a misdemeanor in the 9 other jurisdiction is substantially similar to an offense classified as a Class 1 10 misdemeanor in North Carolina, the conviction is treated as a Class 1 misdemeanor for assigning prior record level points." 11 12 PART 6. CONTINUANCE OF SENTENCING HEARING 13 14 15 Sec. 13. G.S. 15A-1340.14(f) reads as rewritten: 16 "(f) Proof of Prior Convictions. – A prior conviction shall be proved by any of the 17 following methods: 18 (1)Stipulation of the parties. 19 (2)An original or copy of the court record of the prior conviction. 20 (3)A copy of records maintained by the Division of Criminal Information, 21 the Division of Motor Vehicles, or of the Administrative Office of the 22 Courts. 23 (4) Any other method found by the court to be reliable. 24 The State bears the burden of proving, by a preponderance of the evidence, that a prior conviction exists and that the offender before the court is the same person as the 25 offender named in the prior conviction. The original or a copy of the court records or a 26 27 copy of the records maintained by the Division of Criminal Information, the Division of Motor Vehicles, or of the Administrative Office of the Courts, bearing the same name as 28 29 that by which the offender is charged, is prima facie evidence that the offender named 30 is the same person as the offender before the court, and that the facts set out in the record are true. For purposes of this subsection, 'a copy' includes a paper writing 31 32 containing a reproduction of a record maintained electronically on a computer or other 33 data processing equipment, and a document produced by a facsimile machine. The 34 prosecutor shall make all feasible efforts to obtain and present to the court the offender's 35 full record. Evidence presented by either party at trial may be utilized to prove prior 36 convictions. Suppression of prior convictions is pursuant to G.S. 15A-980. If a motion 37 is made pursuant to that section during the sentencing stage of the criminal action, either 38 the State or the offender is entitled to the court may grant a continuance of the sentencing 39 hearing. If asked by the defendant in compliance with G.S. 15A-903, the prosecutor shall furnish the defendant's prior criminal record to the defendant within a reasonable 40 41 time sufficient to allow the defendant to determine if the record available to the 42 prosecutor is accurate."
