ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY: Members of the Penalty Review Committee are compensated in accordance with state and department policies for the compensation of persons appointed to boards and committees. Members are remunerated for travel, subsistence, and per diem. The current membeship includes 4 state employees who receive no compensation. Of the current 5 eligible members only 4 are receiving compensation, one member has elected not to receive any compensation. The total annual compensation is $4,225; the cost per meeting averages about $384. The total annual average compensation per eligible member is approximately $1,056 per person. Assuming that the annual cost remain constant, adding one member will require about $1,056 in additional expenditure.
