A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AMEND THE LAW RELATING TO THE PROTECTION OF ANIMALS, AS RECOMMENDED BY THE GENERAL STATUTES COMMISSION.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

PART I. CIVIL REMEDY FOR CRUELTY AMENDMENTS.

SECTION 1.1. G.S. 19A-3 reads as rewritten:

"§ 19A-3. Preliminary ~~injunction~~injunction; care of animal pending hearing on the merits.

(a) Upon the filing of a verified complaint in the district court in the county in which cruelty to an animal has allegedly occurred, the judge may, as a matter of discretion, issue a preliminary injunction in accordance with the procedures set forth in G.S. 1A-1, Rule 65. Every such preliminary injunction, if the complainant so requests, may give the complainant the right to provide suitable care for the animal. If it appears on the face of the complaint that the condition giving rise to the cruel treatment of an animal requires the animal to be removed from its owner or other person who possesses it, then it shall be proper for the court in the preliminary injunction to allow the complainant to take possession of the ~~animal~~ animal as custodian.

(b) The custodian may employ a veterinarian or other health provider to provide necessary medical care for the animal without any additional court order. Prior to taking such action, the custodian shall consult with, or attempt to consult with, the defendant in the action, but the custodian may authorize such care without the defendant's consent. Notwithstanding the provisions of this subsection, the custodian may not have an animal euthanized without written consent of the defendant or a court order that authorizes euthanasia upon the court's finding that the animal is suffering due to terminal illness or terminal injury.

1 (c) The custodian may place an animal under the custodian's care with a foster
2 care provider. The foster care provider shall return the animal to the custodian on 3 demand."

4 SECTION 1.2. G.S. 19A-4 reads as rewritten:

5 "§ 19A-4. Permanent injunction.

6 (a) In accordance with G.S. 1A-1, Rule 65, a district court judge in the county in
7 which the original action was brought shall determine the merits of the action by trial
8 without a jury, and upon hearing such evidence as may be presented, shall enter orders
9 as the court deems appropriate, including a permanent injunction and dismissal of the 10 action along with dissolution of any preliminary injunction that had been issued.

11 (b) If the plaintiff prevails, the court in its discretion may include the costs of 12 food, water, shelter, and care, including medical care, provided to the animal, less any 13 amounts deposited by the defendant under G.S. 19A-70, as part of the costs allowed to 14 the plaintiff under G.S. 6-18. In addition, if the court finds by a preponderance of the 15 evidence that even if a permanent injunction were issued there would exist a substantial 16 risk that the animal would be subjected to further cruelty if returned to the possession of 17 the defendant, the court may terminate the defendant's ownership and right of 18 possession of the animal and transfer ownership and right of possession to the plaintiff
19 or other appropriate successor owner. For good cause shown, the court may also enjoin 20 the defendant from acquiring new animals for a specified period of time or limit the 21 number of animals the defendant may own or possess during a specified period of time.

22 (c) If the final judgment entitles the defendant to regain possession of the animal,
23 the custodian shall return the animal, including taking any necessary steps to retrieve the 24 animal from a foster care provider.

25 (d) The court shall consider and may provide for custody and care of the animal
