Short Title: Property Tax Deferral.

Referred to:

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CREATE A PROPERTY TAX DEFERRAL BENEFIT FOR LOW-INCOME ELDERLY AND DISABLED INDIVIDUALS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 12 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 105-277.1B. Permanent residence tax deferral.

(a) Classification. – A permanent residence owned and occupied by a qualifying owner is designated a special class of property under Article V, Section 2(2) of the North Carolina Constitution and is taxable in accordance with this section.

(b) Deferral. – A qualified owner of property may defer payment of up to fifty percent (50%) of the tax levied on his or her permanent residence unless (i) the property is subject to a lien that, pursuant to a federal law, rule, or regulation, prohibits deferral of taxes, or (ii) the amount of outstanding liens on the property exceeds eighty-five percent (85%) of the assessed value of the property. Under this section, a qualifying owner is an owner who meets all of the following requirements as of January 1 preceding the taxable year for which the benefit is claimed:

(1) The owner is at least 65 years of age or totally and permanently disabled.

(2) Until July 1, 2009, the owner has an income for the preceding calendar year of not more than thirty thousand dollars ($30,000). For taxable years beginning on or after July 1, 2009, the income requirement is the amount for the preceding year, adjusted by the same percentage of this amount as the percentage of any cost-of-living adjustment made to the benefits under Titles II and XVI of the Social Security Act for the preceding calendar year, rounded to the nearest one hundred dollars ($100.00). On or before July 1 of each year, the Department of

1 Revenue must determine the income requirement to be in effect for the 2 taxable year beginning the following July 1 and must notify the 3 assessor of each county of the amount to be in effect for that taxable 4 year.

5 (3) The owner is a North Carolina resident.

6 The amount of taxes deferred accrues interest at the rate of five percent (5%) from 7 the date the tax is otherwise due until payment. The amount of deferred taxes and 8 accrued interest constitutes a lien on the property, which attaches at the time prescribed 9 in G.S. 105-355, and has the priority established in G.S. 105-356.

10 (c) Definitions. – The definitions provided in G.S. 105-277.1 apply to this 11 section.

12 (d) Application. – An application for deferral provided by this section should be 13 filed during the regular listing period, but may be filed and must be accepted at any time 14 up to and through June 1 preceding the tax year for which the deferral is claimed. The 15 application form provided by a county for deferral must state the conditions under 16 which deferred taxes and interest become due and payable and must also state that 17 interest will accrue on the amount deferred and that this amount constitutes a lien. Each 18 applicant who applies for the deferral method of property tax relief must furnish a list of 19 the amounts of all liens on the property for which tax deferral is sought and the holders 20 of these liens.

21 (1) Elderly applicants. – Persons 65 years of age or older may apply for 22 this exclusion by entering the appropriate information on a form made 23 available by the assessor under G.S. 105-282.1.

24 (2) Disabled applicants. – Persons who are totally and permanently
25 disabled may apply for this exclusion by (i) entering the appropriate 26 information on a form made available by the assessor under 27 G.S. 105-282.1 and (ii) furnishing acceptable proof of their disability.
28 The proof must be in the form of a certificate from a physician
29 licensed to practice medicine in North Carolina or from a 30 governmental agency authorized to determine qualification for 31 disability benefits. After a disabled applicant has qualified for this 32 classification, the applicant is not required to furnish an additional 33 certificate unless the applicant's disability is reduced to the extent that 34 the applicant could no longer be certified for the deferral.

35 (e) Multiple Ownership. – A permanent residence owned and occupied by 36 husband and wife as tenants by the entirety is entitled to the full benefit of this deferral 37 notwithstanding that only one of them meets the age or disability requirements of this 38 section. When a permanent residence is owned and occupied by two or more persons 39 other than husband and wife, each person must qualify for this deferral and must elect 40 this deferral in order for this deferral to be allowed.

41 (f) Notification of Additional Liens. – The owner of tax-deferred property must 42 notify the assessor of the amount and holder of any new lien against the property arising 43 after application for deferral has been made within 60 days after the new lien is created.

1 (g) Transfer or Disqualification of Property. – Payment of taxes deferred under 2 this section may be deferred until the death of the owner or until the property is 3 transferred, at which time the full amount of deferred taxes and interest becomes due.
4 The taxes and interest must be paid within nine months after the date of death or 5 transfer, unless the property is transferred to the former owner's spouse and the spouse 6 is 65 years of age or older and occupies the property as his or her permanent residence, 7 in which case the spouse may elect to continue deferring payment of the tax.

8 If the owner of tax-deferred property does not qualify under this section for deferral 9 as of January 1 preceding a taxable year, the owner may not defer any additional 10 property taxes that year, but the deferred taxes from earlier years do not become due 11 because of the owner's failure to qualify for the current year.

12 Except as provided in G.S. 105-277.1(a1), in any year in which the owner of 13 tax-deferred property no longer occupies the property as his or her permanent residence, 14 no tax levied on the property for that year may be deferred, and the full tax for that year
15 is due on the date established in G.S. 105-360. If the owner of tax-deferred property 16 fails to occupy the property as his or her permanent residence for three successive years, 17 the full amount of deferred taxes and interest becomes due that third year and is due and 18 payable at the same time the tax levied on the property in that year is otherwise due.

19 In any year in which the total amount of deferred taxes, interest, and other 20 unsatisfied liens on the property exceeds eighty-five percent (85%) of the assessed value 21 of the property, the assessor must notify the owner that the portion of deferred taxes and 22 interest that exceeds the eighty-five percent (85%) limit is due and must be paid within 23 60 days after receipt of the notice. Failure to pay an amount due under this subsection 24 causes the total amount of deferred taxes and interest to become due and payable at the 25 same time the tax levied on the property in the year in which the failure occurs is 26 otherwise due.

27 (h) Annual Notification to Property Owner. – On or before September 1 of each 28 year, the assessor shall notify each property owner to whom a tax deferral has 29 previously been granted of the accumulated sum of deferred taxes and interest.

30 (i) Prepayment. – All or part of the deferred taxes and accrued interest may be 31 paid to the tax collector at any time. Any partial payment is applied first to accrued 32 interest. A property owner to whom a tax deferral has previously been granted may 33 revoke the application for deferral at any time by notifying the assessor in writing.

34 (j) Payment by Trustee or Mortgagee. – A mortgagee or trustee that elects to pay 35 any tax deferred by the owner of property subject to the mortgage or deed of trust does 36 not by doing so acquire a right to foreclose.

37 (k) Clauses Preventing Application for Deferral Void. – Except for requirements 38 dictated by federal law or regulation, any provision in a mortgage, deed of trust, or other 39 agreement that prohibits the owner from deferring taxes on property under this section 40 is void.

41 (l) Construction. – This section does not prevent the collection of personal 42 property taxes that become a lien against tax-deferred property.

43 (m) Election. – An owner who qualifies for both the homestead property tax
44 exclusion allowed under G.S. 105-277.1 and the permanent residence tax deferral

1 provided in this section may elect the permanent residence tax deferral instead of the 2 property tax homestead exclusion. When property is owned by two or more persons, 3 each person must qualify for both kinds of property tax relief and must elect the 4 permanent residence tax deferral in order for the permanent residence tax deferral to be 5 allowed instead of the property tax homestead exclusion."

6 SECTION 2. G.S. 150-282.1(a)(2) reads as rewritten:

36 by the Department of Revenue designed to notify the taxpayer of his or her rights and 37 responsibilities under the homestead property tax exclusion provided in G.S. 105-277.1 38 and the permanent residence tax deferral provided in G.S. 105-277.1B. The notice must 39 include a statement designed to inform the taxpayer of the rate of tax used to generate
