7 The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

8 SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-1345(b) reads as rewritten:

9 "(b) Bail Following Arrest for Probation Violation. – If at any time during the period of 10 probation the probationer is arrested for a violation of any of the conditions of probation, he 11 must be taken without unnecessary delay before a judicial official to have conditions of release 12 pending a revocation hearing set in the same manner as provided in G.S. 15A-534. If the 13 probationer has been convicted of an offense at any time that requires registration under Article
14 27A of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes or an offense that would have required registration
15 but for the effective date of the law establishing the Sex Offender and Public Protection 16 Registration Program, the court must make a finding that the probationer is not a danger to the 17 public prior to release with or without bail. If a probationer is arrested and charged with the 18 commission of a felony, the probationer shall not be released with or without bail until the 19 court makes a finding that the probationer is not a danger to the public. If a probationer is 20 arrested and charged with the commission of a felony, and the court finds that it has insufficient 21 information to determine whether the probationer poses a danger to the public, then the 22 probationer shall be detained without bond, not to exceed seven working days from the date of 23 the arrest, until the court is provided sufficient information to determine whether the 24 probationer poses a danger to the public."

25 SECTION 2. This act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to 26 offenses committed on or after that date.
