Short Title: (Public) Hotel Operation and Personnel Education Act. Representative Crutchfield. Sponsors: Referred to: A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT DIRECTING THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES TO DEVELOP HUMAN TRAFFICKING AWARENESS TRAINING, REQUIRING LODGING ESTABLISHMENTS AND ACCOMMODATION FACILITATORS TO IMPLEMENT HUMAN TRAFFICKING AWARENESS TRAINING, AND INCREASING THE PUNISHMENT FOR A FIRST OFFENSE OF SOLICITING A PROSTITUTE. The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts: SECTION 1. Chapter 130A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read: "Article 24. "Human Trafficking Public Awareness in Lodging Establishments. "§ 130A-511. Human trafficking awareness training. Definitions. – The following definitions apply in this section: (a) Employee. – As defined in G.S. 130A-492. (1) (2) Employer. – As defined in G.S. 130A-492. Lodging establishment. – As defined in G.S. 130A-492. (3) Training Development and Publication. - The Department shall do both of the (b) following: (1) In consultation with the North Carolina Human Trafficking Commission and the North Carolina Restaurant and Lodging Association, develop a training course, or identify existing training courses, to inform and educate individuals about human trafficking. Ensure the training developed or identified pursuant to this subsection is (2) accessible on its website to individuals with login credentials provided by the Department. Requirements. – A lodging establishment shall do all of the following: (c) Ensure that employees of the establishment who perform housekeeping or (1) check-in and check-out duties annually receive the human trafficking awareness training developed or identified by the Department pursuant to this section. Implement a procedure for the reporting of suspected human trafficking to the (2) National Human Trafficking Hotline or to a local law enforcement agency. Prominently display on the premises in a place that is clearly conspicuous and (3) visible to employees and the public a public awareness sign that contains the

National Human Trafficking Resource hotline information. The Department shall consult with the North Carolina Restaurant and Lodging Association in developing public awareness signage.

- (d) Penalty. The Department may impose an administrative penalty against any individual who willfully and knowingly violates the requirements of this section in the amount of five hundred dollars ($500.00) for the first violation, one thousand dollars ($1,000) for the second violation, and two thousand dollars ($2,000) for the third and each subsequent violation. The clear proceeds of penalties assessed under this subsection shall be remitted to the Civil Penalty and Forfeiture Fund in accordance with G.S. 115C-457.2.
- (e) Private Right. Nothing in this section shall (i) be construed as creating a private cause of action against a lodging establishment, or its employees, for any act or omission arising out of the requirements of this section or (ii) in any way limit or impair the rights or remedies which are otherwise available to a victim of human trafficking under any other law."

SECTION 2. Article 6 of Chapter 42A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 42A-39. Human trafficking awareness reporting and training requirements.

- (a) Definitions. The following definitions apply in this section:
 - (1) Accommodation facilitator. As defined in G.S. 105-164.3.
 - (2) Human trafficking awareness training. The training developed or identified by the Department of Health and Human Services pursuant to G.S. 130A-511.
- (b) Human Trafficking Reporting Requirement. Before contracting with a landlord or real estate broker offering a vacation rental for lease, an accommodation facilitator shall do both of the following:
 - (1) Require the vacation rental provider to acknowledge completion, within the last year, of human trafficking awareness training.
 - (2) Implement a procedure for the reporting of suspected human trafficking occurring at vacation rentals to the National Human Trafficking Hotline or to a local law enforcement agency.
- (c) Penalty. All of the following shall constitute an unfair trade practice in violation of G.S. 75-1.1:
 - (1) Failure by an accommodation facilitator contracting with a vacation rental provider to implement a procedure for the reporting of suspected human trafficking before doing business in the State.
 - (2) Failure by an accommodation facilitator contracting with a vacation rental provider to take reasonable steps to ensure that a vacation rental provider's acknowledgement of human trafficking awareness training completion is accurate.
 - (3) For a vacation rental provider to intentionally make a material misstatement in an acknowledgment of human trafficking awareness training completion.
- (d) Private Right. Nothing in this section shall (i) be construed as creating a private cause of action against an accommodation facilitator, or its employees, for any act or omission arising out of the requirements of this section or (ii) in any way limit or impair the rights or remedies which are otherwise available to a victim of human trafficking under any other law."

SECTION 3.(a) G.S. 14-205.1(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, any person who solicits another for the purpose of prostitution is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor I felony for a first offense and a Class H felony for a second or subsequent offense. Any person 18 years of age or older who willfully solicits a minor for the purpose of prostitution is guilty of a Class G felony. Any person who willfully solicits a person who has a severe or profound mental disability for the purpose of prostitution is guilty of a Class E felony. Punishment under this section may include participation in a program devised for the education and prevention of sexual exploitation (i.e. "John School"),
