1 A JOINT RESOLUTION PROVIDING THAT THE 1989 GENERAL ASSEMBLY
2 SHALL MEET IN THE CITY OF FAYETTEVILLE IN HONOR OF THE TWO 3 HUNDREDTH ANNIVERSARY OF THE RATIFICATION BY NORTH
4 CAROLINA OF THE UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION.

5       Whereas, 1989 marks 200 years since the City of Fayetteville served as the 6 provisional capital of North Carolina; and

7       Whereas, the citizens of Fayetteville have been actively preparing a 8 celebration to honor this historic occasion; and

9       Whereas, the General Assembly has been invited to participate in various 10 activities on April 12th and 13th in the City of Fayetteville in observance of this historic 11 occasion; and

12       Whereas, the Army at Fort Bragg will be involved in hosting the General 13 Assembly for this event; and

14       Whereas, it is only fitting that the General Assembly participate in these 15 activities in honor of the 200th anniversary of the ratification by North Carolina of the 16 United States Constitution;

17 Now, therefore, be it resolved by the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring:

18       Section 1. On Wednesday, April 12, 1989, the Senate and the House of 19 Representatives shall attend a special armed forces presentation at Fort Bragg and shall 20 also meet in Fayetteville at the State House site on Thursday, April 13, 1989, in honor 21 of the 200th anniversary of the ratification by North Carolina of the United States 22 Constitution. During this time, the Senate and the House of Representatives are also 23 invited to participate in other activities to celebrate this occasion.

1           Sec. 2. This resolution is effective upon ratification.
