A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AMEND THE WORKERS' COMPENSATION ACT REGARDING THE RIGHTS AND REMEDIES OF AN EMPLOYEE, HIS EMPLOYER, AND THE EMPLOYER'S INSURANCE COMPANY AGAINST THIRD PARTIES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

Section 1. G.S. 97-10.2 reads as rewritten:

"§ 97-10.2. Rights under Article not affected by liability of third party; rights and remedies against third parties.

(a) The right to compensation and other benefits under this Article for disability, disfigurement, or death shall not be affected by the fact that the injury or death was caused under circumstances creating a liability in some person other than the employer to pay damages therefor, such person hereinafter being referred to as the 'third party.' The respective rights and interests of the employee-beneficiary under this Article, the employer, and the employer's insurance carrier, if any, in respect of the common-law cause of action against such third party and the damages recovered shall be as set forth in this section.

(b) The employee, or his personal representative if he be dead, shall have the exclusive right to proceed to enforce the liability of the third party by appropriate proceedings if such proceedings are instituted not later than 12 months after the date of injury or death, whichever is later. During said 12-month period, and at any time thereafter if summons is issued against the third party during said 12-month period, the employee or his personal representative shall have the right to settle with the third party and to give a valid and complete release of all claims to the third party by reason of such injury or death, subject to the provisions of (h) below.

1 (c) If settlement is not made and summons is not issued within said 12-month
2 period, and if employer shall have filed with the Industrial Commission a written
3 admission of liability for the benefits provided by this Chapter, then either the employee
4 or the employer shall have the right to proceed to enforce the liability of the third party 5 by appropriate proceedings; either shall have the right to settle with the third party and 6 to give a valid and complete release of all claims to the third party by reason of such 7 injury or death, subject to the provisions of (h) below. Provided that 60 days before the 8 expiration of the period fixed by the applicable statute of limitations if neither the 9 employee nor the employer shall have settled with or instituted proceedings against the 10 third party, all such rights shall revert to the employee or his personal representative.

11 (d) The person in whom the right to bring such proceeding or make settlement is 12 vested shall, during the continuation thereof, also have the exclusive right to make 13 settlement with the third party and the release of the person having the right shall fully 14 acquit and discharge the third party except as provided by (h) below. A proceeding so 15 instituted by the person having the right shall be brought in the name of the employee or 16 his personal representative and the employer or the insurance carrier shall not be a 17 necessary or proper party thereto. If the employee or his personal representative shall 18 refuse to cooperate with the employer by being the party plaintiff, then the action shall 19 be brought in the name of the employer and the employee or his personal representative 20 shall be made a party plaintiff or party defendant by order of court.

21 (e) The amount of compensation and other benefits paid or payable on account of 22 such injury or death shall be admissible in evidence in any proceeding against the third 23 party. In the event that said amount of compensation and other benefits is introduced in 24 such a proceeding the court shall instruct the jury that said amount will be deducted by 25 the court from any amount of damages awarded to the plaintiff. If the third party 26 defending such proceeding, by answer duly served on the employer, sufficiently alleges 27 that actionable negligence of the employer joined and concurred with the negligence of 28 the third party in producing the injury or death, then an issue shall be submitted to the 29 jury in such case as to whether actionable negligence of employer joined and concurred
30 with the negligence of the third party in producing the injury or death. The employer 31 shall have the right to appear, to be represented, to introduce evidence, to cross-examine 32 adverse witnesses, and to argue to the jury as to this issue as fully as though he were a 33 party although not named or joined as a party to the proceeding. Such issue shall be the 34 last of the issues submitted to the jury. If the verdict shall be that actionable negligence
35 of the employer did join and concur with that of the third party in producing the injury
36 or death, then the court shall reduce the damages awarded by the jury against the third 37 party by the amount which the employer would otherwise be entitled to receive 38 therefrom by way of subrogation hereunder and the entire amount recovered, after such 39 reduction, shall belong to the employee or his personal representative free of any claim 40 by the employer and the third party shall have no further right by way of contribution or 41 otherwise against the employer, except any right which may exist by reason of an 42 express contract of indemnity between the employer and the third party, which was 43 entered into prior to the injury to the employee. In the event that the court becomes 44 aware that there is an express contract of indemnity between the employer and the third

1 party the court may in the interest of justice exclude the employer from the trial of the 2 claim against the third party and may meet the issue of the actionable negligence of the 3 employer to the jury in a separate hearing.

4 (f) (1) If the employer has filed a written admission of liability for 5 benefits under this Chapter with, or if an award final in nature in 6 favor of the employee has been entered by the Industrial 7 Commission, then any amount obtained by any person by settlement
8 with, judgment against, or otherwise from the third party by reason 9 of such injury or death shall be disbursed by order of the Industrial 10 Commission for the following purposes and in the following order of 11 priority:

12 a. First to the payment of actual court costs taxed by ~~judgment.~~
13 judgment or expenses incurred by the employee in the litigation
14 of the third-party claim.

15 b. Second to the payment of the fee of the attorney representing 16 the person making settlement or obtaining judgment, and except 17 for the fee on the subrogation interest of the employer such fee
18 shall not be subject to the provisions of ~~§ 90 of this Chapter~~ G.S.
19 97-90 but shall not exceed one third of the amount obtained or 20 recovered of the third party.

21 c. Third to the reimbursement of the employer for all benefits by 22 way of compensation or medical treatment expense paid or to 23 be paid by the employer under award of the Industrial 24 Commission.

25 d. Fourth to the payment of any amount remaining to the 26 employee or his personal representative.

27 (2) The attorney fee paid under (f)(1) shall be paid by the employee and 28 the employer in direct proportion to the amount each shall receive 29 under (f)(1)c and (f)(1)d hereof and shall be deducted from such 30 payments when distribution is made.

31 (g) The insurance carrier affording coverage to the employer under this Chapter 32 shall be subrogated to all rights and liabilities of the employer hereunder but this shall 33 not be construed as conferring any other or further rights upon such insurance carrier 34 than those herein conferred upon the employer, anything in the policy of insurance to 35 the contrary notwithstanding.

36 (h) In any proceeding against or settlement with the third party, every party to the 37 claim for compensation shall have a lien to the extent of his interest under (f) hereof 38 upon any payment made by the third party by reason of such injury or death, whether 39 paid in settlement, in satisfaction of judgment, as consideration for covenant not to sue, 40 or otherwise and such lien may be enforced against any person receiving such funds.
41 Neither the employee or his personal representative nor the employer shall make any 42 settlement with or accept any payment from the third party without the written consent 43 of the other and no release to or agreement with the third party shall be valid or

1 enforceable for any purpose unless both employer and employee or his personal 2 representative join therein; provided, that this sentence shall not ~~apply if apply~~:

3 (1) If the employer is made whole for all benefits paid or to be paid by 4 him under this Chapter less attorney's fees as provided by (f)(1) and 5 (2) hereof and the release to or agreement with the third party is 6 executed by the ~~employee-employee~~; or

7 (2) If either party follows the provisions of subsection (j) of this section.

8 (i) Institution of proceedings against or settlement with the third party, or 9 acceptance of benefits under this Chapter, shall not in any way or manner affect any 10 other remedy which any party to the claim for compensation may have except as 11 otherwise specifically provided in this Chapter, and the exercise of one remedy shall not 12 in any way or manner be held to constitute an election of remedies so as to bar the other.

13 (j) ~~In~~ Notwithstanding any other subsection in this section, in the event that a 14 judgment is obtained which is insufficient to compensate the subrogation claim of the 15 Workers' Compensation Insurance Carrier, or in the event that a settlement has been 16 agreed upon by the employee and the third party when said action is pending on a trial 17 calendar and the pretrial conference with the judge has been held, party, either party may 18 apply to the resident superior court judge of the county in which the cause of action 19 arose or the presiding judge before whom the cause of action is pending, for 20 determination as to the amount to be paid to each by such third party tort feisor. to determine 21 the subrogation amount. After notice to the employer, after an opportunity to be heard 22 by all interested parties, and with or without the consent of the employer, the judge shall 23 determine, in his discretion, the amount, if any, of the employer's lien and the amount of 24 cost of the third-party litigation to be shared between the employee and employer. If the 25 matter is pending in the federal district court such determination may be made by a 26 federal district court judge of that division."

27 Sec. 2. This act is effective upon ratification.
