A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AMEND THE CONSTITUTION OF NORTH CAROLINA TO PROVIDE FOR NOMINATION OF JUSTICES OF THE SUPREME COURT AND JUDGES OF THE COURT OF APPEALS, GUBERNATORIAL APPOINTMENT, AND RETENTION BY VOTE OF THE PEOPLE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

Section 1. Section 16 of Article IV of the North Carolina Constitution reads as rewritten:

~~"Sec. 16. Terms of office and election of Justices of the Supreme Court, Judges of the Court of Appeals, and Judges of the Superior Court.—Selection and tenure of Justices of the Supreme Court and Judges of the Court of Appeals; election of Judges of the Superior Court.~~

~~Justices of the Supreme Court, Judges of the Court of Appeals, and regular (1) Judges of the Superior Court shall be elected by the qualified voters and shall hold office for terms of eight years and until their successors are elected and qualified. Justices of the Supreme Court and Judges of the Court of Appeals shall be elected by the qualified voters of the State.—Regular Judges of the Superior Court may shall be elected by the qualified voters of the State or by the voters of their respective districts, as the General Assembly may prescribe. districts.~~

1       (2) General principles. Justices and Judges of the Appellate Division should be 2 selected for and continue to hold office solely upon the basis of personal and professional 3 fitness to administer justice wisely, according to law, and without favor, denial, or delay,
4 to all persons who come into the courts. While their continuation in office should be 5 periodically subject to approval by the people, both their initial selection and continuation 6 in office should be free from the influences and necessities of partisan political activity.

7       (3) Nomination, appointment, retention election, and terms of justices and judges.
8 On and after January 1, 2001, when a vacancy occurs in the office of Chief Justice,
9 Associate Justice, or Judge of the Appellate Division, the Governor shall appoint a person
10 to fill the vacancy. For the purposes of this section, creation of a new judgeship within 11 the Appellate Division creates a vacancy.

12       The term of office by appointment as Chief Justice, Associate Justice, or Judge of the 13 Appellate Division extends through June 30 after the next statewide election for members 14 of the General Assembly that is held more than 18 months after the appointment. At that 15 election, a person holding by appointment the office of Chief Justice, Associate Justice, 16 or Judge of the Appellate Division who desires to continue in office shall be subject to 17 approval by nonpartisan ballot, by a majority of the votes cast on the issue of the Justice's
18 or Judge's retention. A Chief Justice, Associate Justice, or Judge of the Appellate 19 Division then approved for retention serves a regular term.

20       The regular term of office of the Chief Justice, Associate Justices, and Judges of the 21 Appellate Division is eight years and expires on June 30.

22       A Chief Justice, Associate Justice, or Judge of the Appellate Division who desires to 23 continue in office shall be subject to approval by nonpartisan ballot, by a majority of the 24 votes cast on the issue of the Justice's or Judge's retention during the next general election
25 preceding June 30 of the year that the Justice's or Judge's eight-year term would expire.

26       If the voters fail to approve the retention in office of a Chief Justice, Associate 27 Justice, or Judge of the Appellate Division serving an appointed or regular term, the 28 office shall become vacant at the end of the term of office, and it shall be filled by 29 nomination and appointment as prescribed in this section.

30       Voting in a retention election on the Chief Justice, Associate Justices, and Judges of 31 the Appellate Division shall be the qualified voters of the whole State.

32       (4) Transition provisions. The term of office of a person who has been elected 33 before January 1, 2001, to the office of Chief Justice, Associate Justice, or Judge of the 34 Appellate Division for a term which extends beyond January 1, 2001, and who is in 35 office on January 1, 2001, is extended through June 30 of the year following the eighth
36 year after the date any such justice or judge was last elected to the office. If the person so 37 elected continues to serve for the remainder of the term, that person may stand for 38 retention in the office for a succeeding regular term as provided in this section, subject to 39 the provisions of G.S. 7A-4.20. If the person continues to serve for the remainder of the 40 term but does not stand for retention election, a vacancy is created in the office upon 41 expiration of the term, and this vacancy shall be filled by nomination and appointment as 42 provided in this section.

1       The term of office of a person who has been appointed before January 1, 2001, to the 2 office of Chief Justice, Associate Justice, or Judge of the Appellate Division for a term
3 which extends beyond January 1, 2001, and who is in office on January 1, 2001, shall end 4 on June 30, 2003. If the person so appointed continues to serve for the remainder of the 5 term, that person may stand for retention in the office for a regular term as provided by 6 this section at the statewide election for members of the General Assembly held in 2002.

7       Upon the death, resignation, removal, or retirement of any incumbent justice or judge 8 on or after January 1, 2001, and before the expiration of the justice's or judge's term of 9 office, the resulting vacancy shall be filled by nomination and appointment as provided in 10 this section.

11       Vacancies in judicial offices in the Appellate Division occurring before January 1, 12 2001, and not filled by that date, shall be filled by nomination and appointment as 13 provided in this section.

14       From the date any incumbent described in this subsection is continued in office by 15 retention vote for a term next succeeding the term in progress on January 1, 2001, or is 16 succeeded in office by another person, the office is held subject to the provisions of this 17 section.

18       (5) The General Assembly may implement this section by general law."

19       Section 2. The amendment set out in Section 1 of this act shall be submitted to 20 the qualified voters of the State at the general election in November 2000, which election
21 shall be conducted under the laws then governing elections in the State. Ballots, voting 22 systems, or both may be used in accordance with Chapter 163 of the General Statutes.

23                                   " FOR  AGAINST

24       Constitutional amendment to replace the present practice of selecting justices
25 and judges of the Appellate Division by gubernatorial appointment, followed by partisan 26 elections, with a method by which justices and judges of the Appellate Division will be 27 nominated by a nominating commission, appointed by the Governor, and then serve for 28 limited terms after which the question of the justice's or judge's retention in office is 29 regularly submitted for approval or disapproval by nonpartisan vote of the people at 30 general elections, and to provide for election of superior court judges in their districts."

31       Section 3. If a majority of votes cast on the question are in favor of the 32 amendment set out in Section 1 of this act, the State Board of Elections shall certify the 33 amendment to the Secretary of State. The amendment becomes effective upon this 34 certification. The Secretary of State shall enroll the amendment so certified among the 35 permanent records of that office.
