1 A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE MEMORY OF THE REVEREND 2 DAVID WELLS HANSLEY, A FOUNDER OF MOUNT OLIVE COLLEGE, THE 3 ONLY CHARTERED AND ACCREDITED COLLEGE IN NORTH CAROLINA
4 SPONSORED BY THE NORTH CAROLINA CONVENTION OF ORIGINAL 5 FREE WILL BAPTISTS, ON THE FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF ITS 6 FOUNDING.

7       Whereas, David Wells Hansley was born December 21, 1909, at Folkstone, in 8 Onslow County, North Carolina, to David Cicero and Sunie Avie Heath Hansley, the 9 grandson of Jesse Heath, a Free Will Baptist minister, and of John Hansley, Jr., a 10 Primitive Baptist minister; and

11       Whereas, David W. Hansley attended the Turkey Creek School and Dixon
12 High School in Onslow County and later sought higher education as he became a 13 licensed minister in the Free Will Baptist denomination on August 3, 1930, at the age of 14 21; and

15       Whereas, David W. Hansley was ordained in 1932 and was married in 1933
16 in the Edgemont Free Will Baptist Church parsonage to Mary Elizabeth Clements of 17 Durham, who would spend many years teaching in North Carolina's public schools and 18 providing for the education of youth in her church; and

19       Whereas, David W. Hansley dedicated himself to the work of his church, 20 ultimately serving 37 Free Will Baptist churches in 15 North Carolina counties from 21 1931 to 1988, including Wake, Durham, Franklin, Orange, Johnston, Sampson, Pitt, 22 Wilson, Greene, Wayne, Lenoir, Onslow, Craven, Carteret, and Tyrrell Counties; and

23       Whereas, David W. Hansley was elected in September 1949 to serve as 24 chairman and treasurer of the Board of Christian Education of the North Carolina
25 Convention of Original Free Will Baptists, the third-oldest religious body in the State;

27       Whereas, on September 12, 1951, David W. Hansley presented on behalf of 28 the Board of Christian Education (including the Reverend S. A. Smith of Beulaville, the 29 Reverend R. H. Jackson of Carteret County, and D. B. Sasser of Wilson) to that

1 convention, meeting at White Oak Church in Bladenboro, a resolution to establish and 2 sponsor an institution of Christian higher education in North Carolina and won the 3 adoption of that resolution; and

4       Whereas, David W. Hansley provided leadership in securing a charter on 5 behalf of that convention and its Board of Christian Education from Secretary of State 6 Thad Eure on November 27, 1951; and

7       Whereas, originally known as Mount Allen Junior College, the institution
8 opened in 1952 and operated for its first year at Cragmont Assembly, near Black 9 Mountain, under the direction of President Lloyd Vernon; and

10       Whereas, David W. Hansley was elected the chairman of the college's first 11 Board of Trustees in September 1953 when the college was relocated to the Town of 12 Mount Olive, in Wayne County, nearer to the center of Free Will Baptist Church 13 constituency, the board having arranged to purchase, and having begun renovation of, 14 the former Mount Olive Grammar School for use as its campus; and 15       Whereas, David W. Hansley, representing that board, chose the Reverend W.

16 Burkette Raper to serve as president in August 1954, and in September they opened the 17 college with its first convocation before an enrollment of 22 students in programs of 18 arts, sciences, and business; and

19       Whereas, David W. Hansley served as chairman of the Mount Olive Junior 20 College Board of Trustees from 1953 to 1963, during which time the college earned 21 accreditation from the North Carolina College Conference in 1958 and the Southern 22 Association of Colleges and Schools in 1960; and

23       Whereas, David W. Hansley continued to serve on the Board of Trustees until 24 1970, and with the support of the Free Will Baptist Church, Dr. C. C. Henderson and 25 other Mount Olive civic leaders and citizens, the college expanded from the original 26 grammar school building to a core of buildings on a 100-acre campus along what is now 27 Highway US 117 bypass; and

28       Whereas, David W. Hansley remained an ardent supporter of Mount Olive 29 Junior College and saw the fruition of his vision when Mount Olive Junior College
30 accomplished the transition from a junior to a senior college, and when Hansley 31 personally awarded the first baccalaureate degree to Calvin Heath, a graduate of the 32 college's ministerial program, in May 1986; and 33       Whereas, David W. Hansley died on April 24, 1989, at the age of 79, was 34 honored in a memorial service held on the campus of Mount Olive College, and 35 continues to be remembered for his leadership in helping to found the college and 36 through the David W. and Elizabeth C. Hansley Endowed Fund on the campus; and

37       Whereas, Mount Olive College is recognized and accredited by the 38 Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools and 39 offers opportunities for higher education at its 138-acre main campus in Mount Olive, at 40 Seymour Johnson Air Force Base in Goldsboro, and through locations in New Bern, 41 Wilmington, and Research Triangle Park; and

1           Whereas, on September 12, 2001, the Convention of Original Free Will 2 Baptists met at College Hall on the campus of Mount Olive College to celebrate the 3 founding of the only college chartered and accredited in North Carolina sponsored by 4 that body, on its fiftieth anniversary; Now, therefore,

5 Be it resolved by the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring:

6           SECTION 1. The General Assembly honors the Reverend David W.
7 Hansley as a founder and trustee of Mount Olive College, and the college's sponsor, the 8 North Carolina Convention of Original Free Will Baptists, for their steadfast
9 commitment to providing Christian higher education in North Carolina.

10           SECTION 2. The Secretary of State shall transmit a certified copy of this 11 resolution to the chairman of the Mount Olive College Board of Trustees and to the 12 President of the Convention of Original Free Will Baptists.

13           SECTION 3. This resolution is effective upon ratification.
