6 The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

7 SECTION 1. G.S. 105-275(21) is repealed.

8 SECTION 2. Article 12 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes is amended
9 by adding a new section to read:

10 "§ 105-277.1B. Property tax homestead exclusion for disabled veterans and for 11 surviving spouses of disabled veterans; election of benefit; application.

12 (a) Exclusion. – A permanent residence owned and occupied by a qualifying 13 owner is designated a special class of property under Article V, Section 2(2) of the 14 North Carolina Constitution and is taxable in accordance with this section. The amount 15 of the appraised value of the residence equal to the exclusion amount is excluded from 16 taxation. The exclusion amount is the greater of forty-eight thousand dollars ($48,000) 17 or fifty percent (50%) of the appraised value of the residence.

18 If the qualifying owner predeceases his or her spouse and if, upon the death of the 19 qualifying owner, the spouse holds legal or beneficial title to the homestead and 20 permanently resides on the homestead, the exclusion from taxation provided by this

1 section carries over to the benefit of the surviving spouse until he or she remarries. If 2 the spouse sells the property, an exemption not to exceed the amount granted from the 3 most recent ad valorem tax roll may be transferred to his or her new residence, as long 4 as it is used as his or her primary residence and he or she does not remarry.

5 (1) Temporary absence. – An otherwise qualifying owner does not lose the 6 benefit of this exclusion because of a temporary absence from his or 7 her permanent residence for reasons of health, or because of an 8 extended absence while confined to a rest home or nursing home, so 9 long as the residence is unoccupied or occupied by the owner's spouse 10 or other dependent.

11 (2) Multiple ownership. – A permanent residence owned and occupied by 12 husband and wife as tenants by the entirety is entitled to the full 13 benefit of this exclusion notwithstanding that only one of them meets 14 the age or disability requirements of this section. When a permanent 15 residence is owned and occupied by two or more persons other than 16 husband and wife and one or more of the owners qualifies for this 17 exclusion, each qualifying owner is entitled to the full amount of the 18 exclusion not to exceed his or her proportionate share of the valuation
19 of the property. No part of an exclusion available to one co-owner may 20 be claimed by any other co-owner, and in no event may the total
21 exclusion allowed for a permanent residence exceed the exclusion
22 amount provided in this section.

23 (b) Definitions. – The following definitions apply in this section:

24 (1) Owner. – A person who holds legal or equitable title, whether 25 individually, as a tenant by the entirety, a joint tenant, or a tenant in 26 common, or as the holder of a life estate or an estate for the life of 27 another. A manufactured home jointly owned by husband and wife is 28 considered property held by the entirety.

29 (2) Permanent residence. – A person's legal residence. It includes the 30 dwelling, the dwelling site, not to exceed one acre, and related 31 improvements. The dwelling may be a single-family residence, a unit 32 in a multifamily residential complex, or a manufactured home.

33 (3) Qualifying owner. – An owner who is an honorably discharged veteran 34 of any branch of the Armed Forces of the United States who, as of 35 January 1 preceding the taxable year for which the exclusion is 36 claimed, is a North Carolina resident and who meets either one of the 37 following criteria:

38 a. Has been certified by the United States Government or the 39 United States Department of Veterans Affairs, or its 40 predecessor, with a permanent total disability that is 41 service-connected.

42 b. Receives benefits under 38 U.S.C. § 2101.

1 (c) Election. – An owner who qualifies for a property tax homestead exclusion
2 under this section and under G.S. 105-277.1 may elect to receive the greater of the two 3 exclusions but not both.

4 (d) Application. –

5 (1) Time for filing. – An application for the exclusion provided by this 6 section should be filed during the regular listing period, but may be 7 filed and must be accepted at anytime up to and through June 1
8 preceding the tax year for which the exclusion is claimed.

9 (2) Separate applications for multiple ownership. – When property is 10 owned by two or more persons other than husband and wife and one or 11 more of them qualifies for this exclusion, each owner must apply 12 separately for his or her proportionate share of the exclusion.

13 (3) Proof of disability or receipt of federal housing assistance. – Persons 14 applying for this exclusion shall (i) enter the appropriate information
15 on a form made available by the assessor under G.S. 105-282.1 and (ii)
16 furnish acceptable proof of qualification. The proof must be in the 17 form of a letter or other document from the United States Government 18 or the United States Department of Veterans Affairs certifying that the 19 applicant is an honorably discharged veteran who either has a 20 service-connected total and permanent disability or who is receiving 21 benefits under 38 U.S.C. § 2101."

22 SECTION 3. Article 12 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes is amended
23 by adding a new section to read:

24 "§ 105-277.1C. Property classified for taxation at reduced valuation; duties of tax 25 collectors; reimbursement of localities for tax lost.

26 (a) Tax Collectors to Furnish List of Qualifying Taxpayers. – On December 1, 27 2007, the tax collector of each county and the tax collector of each city shall furnish to 28 the Secretary of Revenue a list containing the name and address of each taxpayer who 29 has qualified in that year for the exclusion provided in G.S. 105-277.1B. The list shall 30 also contain for each name the total amount of property exempted, the tax rate the 31 property is subject to, and the product obtained by multiplying those two numbers by 32 each other. The lists shall be accompanied by an affidavit attesting to the accuracy of 33 the list and shall all be on a form prescribed by the Secretary of Revenue.

34 (b) Extension. – The Secretary of Revenue may, for cause, grant an extension for 35 the submission of a list required by this section.

36 (c) Reimbursement to Counties and Cities. – Before May 31, 2008, the Secretary 37 of Revenue shall distribute to each county and city with taxpayers who qualified for the 38 exclusion provided in G.S. 105-277.1B one hundred percent (100%) of the total lost
39 revenue. The lost revenue is determined by multiplying the tax exclusion for each 40 taxpayer on the list in subsection (a) of this section, times the applicable tax rate. Each
41 year thereafter, on or before May 31, the Secretary of Revenue shall pay the lost 42 revenue to each county and city that was entitled to receive a distribution under this 43 subsection in 2008.

1 (d) Funds Collected for Other Units of Local Government. – Any funds received 2 by any county or city under this section because the county or city was collecting taxes 3 for another unit of government or special district shall be credited to the funds of that 4 other unit or district in accordance with rules issued by the Local Government 5 Commission.

6 (e) Funding for Reimbursement. – In order to pay for the reimbursement under 7 this section, there is annually appropriated to each county and city with taxpayers who 8 qualified for the exclusion provided in G.S. 105-277.1B an amount equal to the 9 reimbursement amount. In order to pay for the cost to the Department of Revenue of 10 administering reimbursement, there is annually appropriated to the Department of 11 Revenue the cost of administration."

12 SECTION 4. G.S. 105-282.1(a)(2)c. reads as rewritten:

13 " c. Special classes of property classified for taxation at a reduced 14 valuation under G.S. 105-277(h), 105-277.1, 105-277.1B, 15 105-277.10, 105-277.13, 105-278."

16 SECTION 5. This act is effective for taxes imposed for taxable years 17 beginning on or after July 1, 2007. Notwithstanding the provisions of 18 G.S. 105-282.1(a), an application for the benefit provided in this act for the 2007-2008
19 tax year shall be considered timely if it is filed on or before September 1, 2007.
