SECTION 1. G.S. 50-13.4(c) reads as rewritten:

6 Payments ordered for the support of a minor child shall be in such amount as "(c) 7 to meet the reasonable needs of the child for health, education, and maintenance, having 8 due regard to the estates, earnings, conditions, accustomed standard of living of the 9 child and the parties, the child care and homemaker contributions of each party, and 10 other facts of the particular case. Payments ordered for the support of a minor child shall 11 be on a monthly basis, due and payable on the first day of each month. The requirement that orders be established on a monthly basis does not affect the availability of 12 13 garnishment of disposable earnings based on an obligor's pay period.

14 The court shall determine the amount of child support payments by applying the 15 presumptive guidelines established pursuant to subsection (c1) of this section. However, 16 upon request of any party, the Court shall hear evidence, and from the evidence, find the 17 facts relating to the reasonable needs of the child for support and the relative ability of each parent to provide support. If, after considering the evidence, the Court finds by the 18 19 greater weight of the evidence that the application of the guidelines would not meet or 20 would exceed the reasonable needs of the child considering the relative ability of each 21 parent to provide support or would be otherwise unjust or inappropriate the Court may 22 vary from the guidelines. If the court orders an amount other than the amount 23 determined by application of the presumptive guidelines, the court shall make findings of fact as to the criteria that justify varying from the guidelines and the basis for the 24 25 amount ordered.

Payments ordered for the support of a child shall terminate when the child reaches the age of 18-21 except:

28 29 (1) If the child is otherwise emancipated, payments shall terminate at that time;

(Public)

S

1	(2) If the child is still in primary or secondary school when the child
2	reaches age 18, support payments shall continue until the child
3	graduates, otherwise ceases to attend school on a regular basis, fails to
4	make satisfactory academic progress towards graduation, or reaches
5	age 20, whichever comes first, unless the court in its discretion orders
6	that payments cease at age 18 or prior to high school graduation.
7	In the case of graduation, or attaining age 20, payments shall terminate without order
8	by the court, subject to the right of the party receiving support to show, upon motion
9	and with notice to the opposing party, that the child has not graduated or attained the
10	age of 20.
11	If an arrearage for child support or fees due exists at the time that a child support
12	obligation terminates, payments shall continue in the same total amount that was due
13	under the terms of the previous court order or income withholding in effect at the time
14	of the support obligation. The total amount of these payments is to be applied to the
1 7

15 arrearage until all arrearages and fees are satisfied or until further order of the court."

16 SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law and applies to 17 actions for child support on or after that date.
