GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA SESSION 2013

Η

1

HOUSE BILL 149 Committee Substitute Favorable 3/6/13 Senate Judiciary II Committee Substitute Adopted 4/29/13

Short Title: Caylee's Law/Report Missing Children.

(Public)

Sponsors:

Referred to:

February 27, 2013

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

2	AN ACT TO MAKE IT A CRIMINAL OFFENSE TO FAIL TO REPORT THE
3	DISAPPEARANCE OF A CHILD TO LAW ENFORCEMENT, TO INCREASE THE
4	CRIMINAL PENALTY FOR CONCEALING THE DEATH OF A CHILD, TO
5	INCREASE THE CRIMINAL PENALTY FOR MAKING A FALSE, MISLEADING, OR
6	UNFOUNDED REPORT TO A LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCY OR OFFICER FOR
7	THE PURPOSE OF INTERFERING OR OBSTRUCTING AN INVESTIGATION
8	INVOLVING A MISSING CHILD OR CHILD VICTIM OF A CLASS A, B1, B2, OR C
9	FELONY, AND TO MAKE IT A CLASS 1 MISDEMEANOR FOR A PERSON TO FAIL
10	TO REPORT THE ABUSE, NEGLECT, DEPENDENCY, OR DEATH DUE TO
11	MALTREATMENT OF A JUVENILE OR TO PREVENT ANOTHER PERSON FROM
12	MAKING SUCH REPORT.
13	The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:
14	SECTION 1. This act may be cited as "Caylee's Law."
15	SECTION 2. Article 39 of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes is amended by
16	adding a new section to read:
17	"§ 14-318.5. Failure to report the disappearance of a child to law enforcement; immunity
18	of person reporting in good faith.
19	(a) The following definitions apply in this section:
20	(1) Child. – Any person who is less than 16 years of age.
21	(2) Disappearance of a child. – When the parent or other person providing
22	supervision of a child does not know the location of the child and has not
23	had contact with the child for a 24-hour period.
24	(b) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child who
25	knowingly or wantonly fails to report the disappearance of a child to law enforcement is in
26	violation of this subsection. Unless the conduct is covered under some other provision of law
27	providing greater punishment, a violation of this subsection is punishable as a Class I felony.
28	(c) Any person who reasonably suspects the disappearance of a child and who
29	reasonably suspects that the child may be in danger shall report those suspicions to law
30	enforcement within a reasonable time. Unless the conduct is covered under some other
31	provision of law providing greater punishment, a violation of this subsection is punishable as a
32	Class 1 misdemeanor.
33	(d) This section does not apply if G.S. 110-102.1 is applicable.
34	(e) Notwithstanding subsection (b) or (c) of this section, if a child is absent from
35	school, a teacher is not required to report the child's absence to law enforcement officers under this section, provided the teacher reports the child's absence from school pursuant to Article 26 of Chapter 115C of the General Statutes. (f) The Felony of failure to report the disappearance of a child as required by subsection is intended to repeal or preclude any other sanctions or remedies. (g) Any person who reports the disappearance of a child as required by this section is immune from any civil or criminal liability that might otherwise be incurred or imposed for that action, provided that the person was acting in good faith. In any proceeding involving liability, good faith is presumed." SECTION 3, G.S. 14-318.4 reads as rewritten: "§ 14-318.4. Child abuse a felony. (a) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age who intentionally inficts any serious physical injury upon or to the child or who intentionally inficts any serious physical injury to the the child is guilty of a Class E felony, except as otherwise provided in subsection (a3) of this section. (a) Any parent of a child less than 16 years of age, or any other person providing care to or supervision of the child, who commits, permits, or encourages any at of prostitution with or by the child is guilty of child abuse and shall be punished as a Class E felony. (a) Any parent or leagl quardian of a child less than 16 years of age who commits or allows the commission of any sexual act upon the child which results in any serious bodly injury to the child or who intentionally influificts any serious bodly injury to the child or who intentionally influificts any serious bodly injury to the child or who intentionally influificts any serious bodly injury to the child or who intentionally influificts any serious provision of a child less than 16 years of age who enumits or ago whote rement or providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whote wills in a cross p		General Assembly Of North CarolinaSession 2013

 (f) The felony of failure to report the disappearance of a child as required by subsection is intended to repeal or preclude any other sanctions or remedies. (g) Any person who reports the disappearance of a child as required by this section is immune from any civil or criminal liability thires be hicurred or imposed for that action, provided that the person was acting in good faith. In any proceeding involving liability, good faith is presumed." SECTION 3. G.S. 14-318.4 reads as rewritten: "$14-318.4. Child abuse a felony. (a) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age who intentionally inflicts any serious physical injury upon or to the child or who intentionally commits an assault upon the child which results in any serious physical injury to the child is guilty of a Class E felony, except as otherwise provided in subsection (a3) of this section. (a) A parent of a child less than 16 years of age, or any other person providing care to or supervision of the child, who commits, permits, or encourages any act of prostitution with or by the child is guilty of child abuse and shall be punished as a Class E felony. (a2) Any parent or legal guardian of a child less than 16 years of age who commits or allows the commission of any sexual act upon the child is guilty of a class E felony. (a3) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whos emittive interministic in guilty of a Class E felony. (a4) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose wilfful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class E felony. (a4) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose wilfful act or grossly negligent omi	1	this section, provided the teacher reports the child's absence from school pursuant to Article 26
 (b) of this section is an offense additional to other civil and criminal provisions and is not intended to repeal or preclude any other sanctions or remedies. (c) Any person who reports the disappearance of a child as required by this section is immune from any civil or criminal liability, that might otherwise be incurred or imposed for that action, provided that the person was acting in good faith. In any proceeding involving liability, good faith is presumed." SECTION 3. G.S. 14-318.4 reads as rewritten: "§ 14.318.4. Child abuse a fedony. (a) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age who intentionally inflicts any serious physical injury upon or to the child or who intentionally comits an assault upon the child which results in any serious physical injury to the child is guilty of a Class E felony, except as otherwise provided in subsection (a3) of this section. (a) Any parent of a child less than 16 years of age, or any other person providing care to or supervision of the child, who commits, permits, or encourages any act of prostitution with or by the child is guilty of a class L felon. (a) Any parent or legal guardian of a child less than 16 years of age who commits or allows the commission of any sexual act upon the child is guilty of a Class E felon. (a) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age who intentionally inflicts any serious bodily injury to the child or who intentionally inflicts any serious bodily injury to the child or who intentionally commits an assault upon the child which results in any serious bodily injury to the child, is guilty of a Class E felony. (a4) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful at cr grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human	2	of Chapter 115C of the General Statutes.
5 intended to repeal or preclude any other sanctions or remedies. 6 (g) Any person who reports the disappearance of a child as required by this section is immune from any civil or criminal liability that might otherwise be incurred or imposed for that action, provided that the person was acting in good faith. In any proceeding involving liability, good faith is presumed." 7 SECTION 3. G.S. 14-318.4 reads as rewritten: 7 § 14-318.4. Child abuse a felony. (a) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age who intentionally inflicts any serious physical injury upon or to the child or who intentionally commits an assault upon the child which results in any serious physical and or or supervision of the child se guilty of a Class E felony, except as otherwise provided in subsection (a3) of this section. (a) (a) Any parent of a child less than 16 years of age, or any other person providing care to or supervision of the child is guilty of child abuse and shall be punished as a Class E felony. (a2) Any parent or legal guardian of a child less than 16 years of age who commits or allows the commission of any sexual act upon the child is unity of a child less than 16 years of age who intentionally inflicts any serious bodily injury to the child or who intentionally inflicts any serious bodily injury to the child or who intentionally commits an assault upon the child which results in any serious bodily injury to the child, seguilty of a Class C felony. (a3) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disrega		(f) The felony of failure to report the disappearance of a child as required by subsection
(g) Any person who reports the disappearance of a child as required by this section is immune from any civil or criminal liability that might otherwise be incurred or invosed for that action, provided that the person was acting in good faith. In any proceeding involving liability, good faith is presumed." 10 SECTION 3. G.S. 14-318.4 reads as rewritten: 11 *§ 14-318.4. Child abuse a felony. 12 (a) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age who intentionally inflicts any serious physical injury upon or to the child or who intentionally commits an assault upon the child which results in any serious physical injury to the child is guilty of a Class E felony, except as otherwise provided in subsection (a3) of this section. 12 (a1) Any parent of a child less than 16 years of age, or any other person providing care to or supervision of the child, who commits, permits, or encourages any act of prostitution with or by the child is guilty of child abuse and shall be punished as a Class E felon. 13 (a2) Any parent or legal guardian of a child less than 16 years of age who commits or allows the commission of any sexual act upon the child is guilty of a Class E felony. 13 A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age who intentionally inflicts any serious bodily injury to the child or who intentionally commits an assault upon the child which results in any serious bodily injury to the child or who intentionally commits an assault upon the class E felony. 14 A pare	4	(b) of this section is an offense additional to other civil and criminal provisions and is not immune from any civil or criminal liability that might otherwise be incurred or imposed for that action, provided that the person was acting in good faith. In any proceeding involving liability, good faith is presumed." SECTION 3. G.S. 14-318.4 reads as rewritten: "§ 14-318.4. Child abuse a felony. (a) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age who intentionally inflicts any serious physical injury upon or to the child or who intentionally commits an assault upon the child which results in any serious physical injury to the child is guilty of a Class E felony, except as otherwise provided in subsection (a3) of this section. (a1) Any parent of a child less than 16 years of age, or any other person providing care to or supervision of the child, who commits, permits, or encourages any act of prostitution with or by the child is guilty of a child bause and shall be punished as a Class E felon. (a2) Any parent or legal guardian of a child less than 16 years of age who commits or allows the commission of any sexual act upon the child is guilty of a Class E felony. (a3) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age who intentionally inflicts any serious bodily injury to the child or who intentionally commits an assault upon the child which results in any serious bodily injury to the child or the results in person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class E felony if the act or omission results in serious bodily injury to the child. (a5) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child hows a reckless disregard for human life is	5	intended to repeal or preclude any other sanctions or remedies.
 action, provided that the person was acting in good faith. In any proceeding involving liability, good faith is presumed." SECTION 3, G.S. 14-318.4 reads as rewritten: "$ 14-318.4. Child abuse a felony. (a) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age who intentionally inflicts any serious physical injury upon or to the child or who intentionally commits an assault upon the child which results in any serious physical injury to the child is guilty of a Class E felony, except as otherwise provided in subsection (a3) of this section. (a1) Any parent of a child less than 16 years of age, or any other person providing care to or supervision of the child, who commits, permits, or encourages any act of prostitution with or by the child is guilty of child abuse and shall be punished as a Class E felon. (a2) Any parent or legal guardian of a child less than 16 years of age who commits or allows the commission of any sexual act upon the child is guilty of a Class E felony. (a3) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age who intentionally inflicts any serious bodily injury to the child or who intentionally commits an assault upon the child which results in any serious bodily injury to the child are wrow farge who wilfful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child less than 16 years of age whose wilfful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class E felony if the act or omission results in serious bodily injury to the child. (a5) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class E felony if the act or omission results in serious behysical i	6	(g) Any person who reports the disappearance of a child as required by this section is good faith is presumed." BECTION 3. G.S. 14-318.4 reads as rewritten: "§ 14-318.4. Child abuse a felony. (a) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age who intentionally inflicts any serious physical injury upon or to the child or who intentionally commits an assault upon the child which results in any serious physical injury to the child is guilty of a Class E felony, except as otherwise provided in subsection (a3) of this section. (a1) Any parent of a child less than 16 years of age, or any other person providing care to or supervision of the child who commits, permits, or encourages any act of prostitution with or by the child is guilty of child abuse and shall be punished as a Class E felon. (a2) Any parent or legal guardian of a child less than 16 years of age who commits or allows the commission of any sexual act upon the child is guilty of a Class E felony. (a3) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age who intentionally inflicts any serious bodily injury to the child or who intentionally commits an assault upon the child which results in any serious bodily injury to the child, or which results in permanent or protracted loss or impairment of any mental or enotional function of the child, is guilty of a Class E felony. (a4) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class E felony if the act or omission results in serious bylysical injury to the child. (a5) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class H felony	7	immune from any civil or criminal liability that might otherwise be incurred or imposed for that
 SECTION 3. G.S. 14-318.4 reads as rewritten: "$ 14-318.4. Child abuse a felony. (a) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age who intentionally inflicts any serious physical injury upon or to the child or who intentionally commits an assault upon the child which results in any serious physical injury to the child is guilty of a Class E felony, except as otherwise provided in subsection (a3) of this section. (a1) Any parent of a child less than 16 years of age, or any other person providing care to or supervision of the child, who commits, permits, or encourages any act of prostitution with or by the child is guilty of child abuse and shall be punished as a Class E felon. (a2) Any parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age who intentionally inflicts any serious bodily injury to the child or who intentionally commits an assault upon the child which results in any serious bodily injury to the child, or which results in permanent or protracted loss or impairment of any mental or eens of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class E felony if the act or omission results in serious bodily injury to the child. (a5) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class E felony if the act or omission results in serious bodily injury to the child. (a5) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of	8	action, provided that the person was acting in good faith. In any proceeding involving liability,
 "§ 14-318.4. Child abuse a felony. (a) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age who intentionally inflicts any serious physical injury upon or to the child or who intentionally commits an assault upon the child which results in any serious physical injury to the child is guilty of a Class E felony, except as otherwise provided in subsection (a3) of this section. (a1) Any parent of a child less than 16 years of age, or any other person providing care to or supervision of the child, who commits, permits, or encourages any act of prostitution with or by the child is guilty of child abuse and shall be punished as a Class E felon. (a2) Any parent or legal guardian of a child less than 16 years of age who commits or allows the commission of any sexual act upon the child is guilty of a Class E felony. (a3) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age who intentionally inflicts any serious bodily injury to the child or who intentionally commits an assault upon the child which results in any serious bodily injury to the child, or which results in permanent or protracted loss or impairment of any mental or emotional function of the child, is guilty of a Class C felony. (a4) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class H felony if the act or omission results in serious bodily injury to the child. (a5) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission" in providing care to or supervision of a child less the failure to report a child as missing to law enforcement as provided in G.S. 14-318.5(b). (b) The felony of child abuse is an	9	good faith is presumed."
 (a) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age who intentionally inflicts any serious physical injury to the child or who intentionally commits an assault upon the child which results in any serious physical injury to (a) Any parent of a child less than 16 years of age, or any other person providing care to or supervision of the child, who commits, permits, or encourages any act of prostitution with or by the child is guilty of child abuse and shall be punished as a Class E felon. (a2) Any parent or legal guardian of a child less than 16 years of age who commits or allows the commission of any sexual act upon the child is guilty of a Class E felony. (a3) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age who intentionally inflicts any serious bodily injury to the child or who intentionally commits an assault upon the child which results in any serious bodily injury to the child, or which results in permanent or protracted loss or impairment of any mental or emotional function of the child, is guilty of a Class E felony. (a4) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class E felony if the act or omission results in serious bodily injury to the child. (a5) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class H felony if the act or omission results in serious physical injury to the	10	SECTION 3. G.S. 14-318.4 reads as rewritten:
 years of age who intentionally inflicts any serious physical injury upon or to the child or who intentionally commits an assault upon the child which results in any serious physical injury to the child is guilty of a Class E felony, except as otherwise provided in subsection (a3) of this section. (a1) Any parent of a child less than 16 years of age, or any other person providing care to or supervision of the child, who commits, permits, or encourages any act of prostitution with or by the child is guilty of child abuse and shall be punished as a Class E felon. (a2) Any parent or legal guardian of a child less than 16 years of age who commits or allows the commission of any sexual act upon the child is guilty of a Class E felony. (a3) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age who intentionally inflicts any serious bodily injury to the child or who intentionally commits an assault upon the child which results in any serious bodily injury to the child, or which results in permanent or protracted loss or impairment of any mental or emotional function of the child, is guilty of a Class C felony. (a4) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class E felony if the act or omission results in serious bodily injury to the child. (a5) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class H felony if the act or omission results in serious physical injury to the child. (a6) For purposes of this section, a "grossly negligent omission" in providing care to or supervision of a child includes the failure to report a child as missing to law enforcem	11	"§ 14-318.4. Child abuse a felony.
 intentionally commits an assault upon the child which results in any serious physical injury to the child is guilty of a Class E felony, except as otherwise provided in subsection (a3) of this section. (a1) Any parent of a child less than 16 years of age, or any other person providing care to or supervision of the child, who commits, permits, or encourages any act of prostitution with or by the child is guilty of child abuse and shall be punished as a Class E felon. (a2) Any parent or legal guardian of a child less than 16 years of age who commits or allows the commission of any sexual act upon the child is guilty of a Class E felony. (a3) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age who intentionally inflicts any serious bodily injury to the child or who intentionally commits an assault upon the child which results in any serious bodily injury to the child, or which results in permanent or protracted loss or impairment of any mental or emotional function of the child, is guilty of a Class E felony. (a4) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class H felony if the act or omission results in serious bodily injury to the child. (a5) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class H felony if the act or omission results in serious bysical injury to the failure to report a child as missing to law enforcement as provided in G.S. 14-318.5(b). (b) The felony of child abuse is an offense additional to other civil and criminal provisions and is not intended to repeal or preclude any other sanctions or mendies. (c) Abandonment	12	(a) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16
 the child is guilty of a Class E felony, except as otherwise provided in subsection (a3) of this section. (a1) Any parent of a child less than 16 years of age, or any other person providing care to or supervision of the child, who commits, permits, or encourages any act of prostitution with or by the child is guilty of child abuse and shall be punished as a Class E felon. (a2) Any parent or legal guardian of a child less than 16 years of age who commits or allows the commission of any sexual act upon the child is guilty of a Class E felony. (a3) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age who intentionally inflicts any serious bodily injury to the child or who intentionally commits an assault upon the child which results in any serious bodily injury to the child, or which results in permanent or protracted loss or impairment of any mental or emotional function of the child, is guilty of a Class E felony. (a4) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class E felony if the act or omission results in serious bodily injury to the child. (a5) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class H felony if the act or omission results in serious physical injury to the child. (a6) For purposes of this section, a "grossly negligent omission" in providing care to or supervision of a child includes the failure to report a child as missing to law enforcement as provided in G.S. 14-318.5(b). (b) The felony of child abuse is an offense additional to other civil and criminal provide in G.S. 14-318.5(b). (c) Abandonment of an inf	13	years of age who intentionally inflicts any serious physical injury upon or to the child or who
 section. (a1) Any parent of a child less than 16 years of age, or any other person providing care to or supervision of the child, who commits, permits, or encourages any act of prostitution with or by the child is guilty of child abuse and shall be punished as a Class E felon. (a2) Any parent or legal guardian of a child less than 16 years of age who commits or allows the commission of any sexual act upon the child is guilty of a Class E felony. (a3) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age who intentionally inflicts any serious bodily injury to the child or who intentionally commits an assault upon the child which results in any serious bodily injury to the child, or which results in permanent or protracted loss or impairment of any mental or emotional function of the child, is guilty of a Class E felony. (a4) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class E felony if the act or omission results in serious bodily injury to the child. (a5) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class H felony if the act or omission results in serious physical injury to the child. (a6) For purposes of this section, a "grossly negligent omission" in providing care to or supervision of a child includes the failure to report a child as missing to law enforcement as provided in G.S. 14-318.5(b). (b) The felony of child abuse is an offense additional to other civil and criminal provisions and i	14	intentionally commits an assault upon the child which results in any serious physical injury to
 (a1) Any parent of a child less than 16 years of age, or any other person providing care to or supervision of the child, who commits, permits, or encourages any act of prostitution with or by the child is guilty of child abuse and shall be punished as a Class E felon. (a2) Any parent or legal guardian of a child less than 16 years of age who commits or allows the commission of any sexual act upon the child is guilty of a Class E felony. (a3) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age who intentionally inflicts any serious bodily injury to the child or who intentionally commits an assault upon the child which results in any serious bodily injury to the child, or which results in permanent or protracted loss or impairment of any mental or emotional function of the child, is guilty of a Class C felony. (a4) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class E felony if the act or omission results in serious bodily injury to the child. (a5) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class H felony if the act or omission results in serious physical injury to the child. (a6) For purposes of this section, a "grossly negligent omission" in providing care to or supervision of a child includes the failure to report a child as missing to law enforcement as provided in G.S. 14-318.5(b). (b) The felony of child abuse is an offense additional to other civil and criminal provisions and is not intended to repeal or preclude any other sanctions or remedies. (c) Abandonment of an infant less than seven days of age pursuant to G.S. 14-322.3	15	the child is guilty of a Class E felony, except as otherwise provided in subsection (a3) of this or supervision of the child, who commits, permits, or encourages any act of prostitution with or by the child is guilty of child abuse and shall be punished as a Class E felon. (a2) Any parent or legal guardian of a child less than 16 years of age who commits or allows the commission of any sexual act upon the child is guilty of a Class E felony. (a3) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age who intentionally inflicts any serious bodily injury to the child or who intentionally commits an assault upon the child which results in any serious bodily injury to the child, or which results in permanent or protracted loss or impairment of any mental or emotional function of the child, is guilty of a Class C felony. (a4) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class E felony if the act or omission results in serious bodily injury to the child. (a5) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class H felony if the act or omission results in serious physical injury to the child. (a6) For purposes of this section, a "grossly negligent omission" in providing care to or supervision of a child includes the failure to report a child as missing to law enforcement as provided in GS, 14-318.5(b). (b) The felony of child abuse is an offense additional to other civil and criminal provisions and is not intended to repeal or preclude any other sanctions or remedies. (c) Abandonment of an infant less than seven days of age pursuant to G.S. 14-322.3 may be treated as a mitigating factor in sentencing for a conviction under this section invol	16	section.
 by the child is guilty of child abuse and shall be punished as a Class E felon. (a2) Any parent or legal guardian of a child less than 16 years of age who commits or allows the commission of any sexual act upon the child is guilty of a Class E felony. (a3) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age who intentionally inflicts any serious bodily injury to the child or who intentionally commits an assault upon the child which results in any serious bodily injury to the child, or which results in permanent or protracted loss or impairment of any mental or emotional function of the child, is guilty of a Class C felony. (a4) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class E felony if the act or omission results in serious bodily injury to the child. (a5) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class H felony if the act or omission results in serious bodily injury to the child. (a6) For purposes of this section, a "grossly negligent omission" in providing care to or supervision of a child includes the failure to report a child as missing to law enforcement as provided in G.S. 14-318.5(b). (b) The felony of child abuse is an offense additional to other civil and criminal provided in G.S. 14-318.5(b). (c) The following definitions apply in this section: (d) The following definitions apply in this section: (d) The following definitions apply in this section: (d) The following	17	(a1) Any parent of a child less than 16 years of age, or any other person providing care to
 (a2) Any parent or legal guardian of a child less than 16 years of age who commits or allows the commission of any sexual act upon the child is guilty of a Class E felony. (a3) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age who intentionally inflicts any serious bodily injury to the child or who intentionally commits an assault upon the child which results in any serious bodily injury to the child, or which results in permanent or protracted loss or impairment of any mental or emotional function of the child, is guilty of a Class C felony. (a4) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class E felony if the act or omission results in serious bodily injury to the child. (a5) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class H felony if the act or omission results in serious physical injury to the child. (a6) For purposes of this section, a "grossly negligent omission" in providing care to or supervision of a child includes the failure to report a child as missing to law enforcement as provided in G.S. 14-318.5(b). (b) The felony of child abuse is an offense additional to other civil and criminal provisions and is not intended to repeal or preclude any other sanctions or remedies. (c) Abandonment of an infant less than seven days of age pursuant to G.S. 14-32.3 may be treated as a mitigating factor in sentencing for a conviction under this section involving that infant. (d) The following definitions apply in this section: (d) The following definitions apply in this section: (d) The following definitions apply	18	or supervision of the child, who commits, permits, or encourages any act of prostitution with or allows the commission of any sexual act upon the child is guilty of a Class E felony. (a3) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age who intentionally inflicts any serious bodily injury to the child or who intentionally commits an assault upon the child which results in any serious bodily injury to the child, or which results in permanent or protracted loss or impairment of any mental or emotional function of the child, is guilty of a Class C felony. (a4) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class E felony if the act or omission results in serious bodily injury to the child. (a5) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class H felony if the act or omission results in serious physical injury to the child. (a6) For purposes of this section, a "grossly negligent omission" in providing care to or supervision of a child includes the failure to report a child as missing to law enforcement as provided in G.S. 14-318.5(b). (b) The felony of child abuse is an offense additional to other civil and criminal provisions and is not intended to repeal or preclude any other sanctions or remedies. (c) Abandonment of an infant less than seven days of age pursuant to G.S. 14-322.3 may be treated as a mitigating factor in sentencing for a conviction under this section involving that infant. (d) The following definitions apply in this section: (1) Serious bodily injury. – Bodily injury that creates		by the child is guilty of child abuse and shall be punished as a Class E felon.
 (a3) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age who intentionally inflicts any serious bodily injury to the child or who intentionally commits an assault upon the child which results in any serious bodily injury to the child, or which results in permanent or protracted loss or impairment of any mental or emotional function of the child, is guilty of a Class C felony. (a4) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class E felony if the act or omission results in serious bodily injury to the child. (a5) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class H felony if the act or omission results in serious physical injury to the child. (a6) For purposes of this section, a "grossly negligent omission" in providing care to or supervision of a child includes the failure to report a child as missing to law enforcement as provided in G.S. 14-318.5(b). (b) The felony of child abuse is an offense additional to other civil and criminal provisions and is not intended to repeal or preclude any other sanctions or remedies. (c) Abandonment of an infant less than seven days of age pursuant to G.S. 14-322.3 may be treated as a mitigating factor in sentencing for a conviction under this section involving that infant. (d) The following definitions apply in this section: (1) Serious bodily injury. – Bodily injury that creates a substantial risk of death or that causes serious permanent disfigurement, coma, a permanent o	20	(a2) Any parent or legal guardian of a child less than 16 years of age who commits or years of age who intentionally inflicts any serious bodily injury to the child or who intentionally commits an assault upon the child which results in any serious bodily injury to the child, or which results in permanent or protracted loss or impairment of any mental or emotional function of the child, is guilty of a Class C felony. (a4) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class E felony if the act or omission results in serious bodily injury to the child. (a5) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class H felony if the act or omission results in serious physical injury to the child. (a6) For purposes of this section, a "grossly negligent omission" in providing care to or supervision of a child includes the failure to report a child as missing to law enforcement as provided in G.S. 14-318.5(b). (b) The felony of child abuse is an offense additional to other civil and criminal provisions and is not intended to repeal or preclude any other sanctions or remedies. (c) Abandonment of an infant less than seven days of age pursuant to G.S. 14-322.3 may be treated as a mitigating factor in sentencing for a conviction under this section involving that infant. (d) The following definitions apply in this section: (1) Serious bodily injury. – Bodily injury that creates a substantial risk of death or that causes serious permanent disfigurement, coma, a permanent or protracted condition that causes extreme pain, or permanent or protracted loss or impairment of the function of any bodily member or organ, or that results in prolonged hospitalization. (2) Serious physical		allows the commission of any sexual act upon the child is guilty of a Class E felony.
 intentionally commits an assault upon the child which results in any serious bodily injury to the child, or which results in permanent or protracted loss or impairment of any mental or emotional function of the child, is guilty of a Class C felony. (a4) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class E felony if the act or omission results in serious bodily injury to the child. (a5) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class H felony if the act or omission results in serious physical injury to the child. (a6) For purposes of this section, a "grossly negligent omission" in providing care to or supervision of a child includes the failure to report a child as missing to law enforcement as provided in G.S. 14-318.5(b). (b) The felony of child abuse is an offense additional to other civil and criminal provisions and is not intended to repeal or preclude any other sanctions or remedies. (c) Abandonment of an infant less than seven days of age pursuant to G.S. 14-322.3 may be treated as a mitigating factor in sentencing for a conviction under this section involving that infant. (d) The following definitions apply in this section: (1) Serious bodily injury. – Bodily injury that creates a substantial risk of death or that causes serious permanent disfigurement, coma, a permanent or protracted condition that causes extreme pain, or permanent or protracted condition that causes extreme pain, or permanent or protracted condition that causes extreme pain, or permanent or prot		(a3) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16
 child, or which results in permanent or protracted loss or impairment of any mental or emotional function of the child, is guilty of a Class C felony. (a4) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class E felony if the act or omission results in serious bodily injury to the child. (a5) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class H felony if the act or omission results in serious physical injury to the child. (a6) For purposes of this section, a "grossly negligent omission" in providing care to or supervision of a child includes the failure to report a child as missing to law enforcement as provided in G.S. 14-318.5(b). (b) The felony of child abuse is an offense additional to other civil and criminal provisions and is not intended to repeal or preclude any other sanctions or remedies. (c) Abandonment of an infant less than seven days of age pursuant to G.S. 14-322.3 may be treated as a mitigating factor in sentencing for a conviction under this section involving that infant. (d) The following definitions apply in this section: (1) Serious bodily injury. – Bodily injury that creates a substantial risk of death or that causes serious permanent disfigurement, coma, a permanent or protracted loss or impairment of the function of any bodily member or organ, or that results in prolonged hospitalization. (2) Serious physical injury. – Physical injury that causes great pain and suffering. The term includes serious mental injury." 		years of age who intentionally inflicts any serious bodily injury to the child or who emotional function of the child, is guilty of a Class C felony. (a4) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class E felony if the act or omission results in (a5) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class H felony if the act or omission results in serious bodily injury to the child. (a6) For purposes of this section, a "grossly negligent omission" in providing care to or supervision of a child includes the failure to report a child as missing to law enforcement as provided in G.S. 14-318.5(b). (b) The felony of child abuse is an offense additional to other civil and criminal provisions and is not intended to repeal or preclude any other sanctions or remedies. (c) Abandonment of an infant less than seven days of age pursuant to G.S. 14-322.3 may be treated as a mitigating factor in sentencing for a conviction under this section involving that infant. (d) The following definitions apply in this section: (1) Serious bodily injury. – Bodily injury that creates a substantial risk of death or that causes serious permanent disfigurement, coma, a permanent or protracted condition that causes extreme pain, or permanent or protracted loss or impairment of the function of any bodily member or organ, or that results in prolonged hospitalization. 		intentionally commits an assault upon the child which results in any serious bodily injury to the
 (a4) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class E felony if the act or omission results in serious bodily injury to the child. (a5) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class H felony if the act or omission results in serious physical injury to the child. (a6) For purposes of this section, a "grossly negligent omission" in providing care to or supervision of a child includes the failure to report a child as missing to law enforcement as provided in G.S. 14-318.5(b). (b) The felony of child abuse is an offense additional to other civil and criminal provisions and is not intended to repeal or preclude any other sanctions or remedies. (c) Abandonment of an infant less than seven days of age pursuant to G.S. 14-322.3 may be treated as a mitigating factor in sentencing for a conviction under this section involving that infant. (d) The following definitions apply in this section: 44 (1) Serious bodily injury. – Bodily injury that creates a substantial risk of death or that causes serious permanent disfigurement, coma, a permanent or protracted condition that causes extreme pain, or permanent or protracted loss or impairment of the function of any bodily member or organ, or that a results in prolonged hospitalization. 49 (2) Serious physical injury. – Physical injury that causes great pain and suffering. The term includes serious mental injury." 		· · · · ·
 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class E felony if the act or omission results in serious bodily injury to the child. (a5) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class H felony if the act or omission results in serious physical injury to the child. (a6) For purposes of this section, a "grossly negligent omission" in providing care to or supervision of a child includes the failure to report a child as missing to law enforcement as provided in G.S. 14-318.5(b). (b) The felony of child abuse is an offense additional to other civil and criminal provisions and is not intended to repeal or preclude any other sanctions or remedies. (c) Abandonment of an infant less than seven days of age pursuant to G.S. 14-322.3 may be treated as a mitigating factor in sentencing for a conviction under this section involving that infant. (d) The following definitions apply in this section: (1) Serious bodily injury. – Bodily injury that creates a substantial risk of death or that causes serious permanent disfigurement, coma, a permanent or protracted loss or impairment of the function of any bodily member or organ, or that results in prolonged hospitalization. (2) Serious physical injury. – Physical injury that causes great pain and suffering. The term includes serious mental injury."
 reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class E felony if the act or omission results in serious bodily injury to the child. (a5) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class H felony if the act or omission results in serious physical injury to the child. (a6) For purposes of this section, a "grossly negligent omission" in providing care to or supervision of a child includes the failure to report a child as missing to law enforcement as provided in G.S. 14-318.5(b). (b) The felony of child abuse is an offense additional to other civil and criminal provisions and is not intended to repeal or preclude any other sanctions or remedies. (c) Abandonment of an infant less than seven days of age pursuant to G.S. 14-322.3 may be treated as a mitigating factor in sentencing for a conviction under this section involving that infant. (d) The following definitions apply in this section: (1) Serious bodily injury. – Bodily injury that creates a substantial risk of death or that causes serious permanent disfigurement, coma, a permanent or protracted condition that causes extreme pain, or permanent or organ, or that results in prolonged hospitalization. (2) Serious physical injury. – Physical injury that causes great pain and suffering. The term includes serious mental injury."
 serious bodily injury to the child. (a5) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class H felony if the act or omission results in serious physical injury to the child. (a6) For purposes of this section, a "grossly negligent omission" in providing care to or supervision of a child includes the failure to report a child as missing to law enforcement as provided in G.S. 14-318.5(b). (b) The felony of child abuse is an offense additional to other civil and criminal provisions and is not intended to repeal or preclude any other sanctions or remedies. (c) Abandonment of an infant less than seven days of age pursuant to G.S. 14-322.3 may be treated as a mitigating factor in sentencing for a conviction under this section involving that infant. (d) The following definitions apply in this section: 44 (1) Serious bodily injury. – Bodily injury that creates a substantial risk of death or that causes serious permanent disfigurement, coma, a permanent or protracted condition that causes extreme pain, or permanent or protracted loss or impairment of the function of any bodily member or organ, or that results in prolonged hospitalization. (2) Serious physical injury. – Physical injury that causes great pain and suffering. The term includes serious mental injury."
 (a5) A parent or any other person providing care to or supervision of a child less than 16 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class H felony if the act or omission results in serious physical injury to the child. (a6) For purposes of this section, a "grossly negligent omission" in providing care to or supervision of a child includes the failure to report a child as missing to law enforcement as provided in G.S. 14-318.5(b). (b) The felony of child abuse is an offense additional to other civil and criminal provisions and is not intended to repeal or preclude any other sanctions or remedies. (c) Abandonment of an infant less than seven days of age pursuant to G.S. 14-322.3 may be treated as a mitigating factor in sentencing for a conviction under this section involving that infant. (d) The following definitions apply in this section: (1) Serious bodily injury. – Bodily injury that creates a substantial risk of death or that causes serious permanent disfigurement, coma, a permanent or protracted condition that causes extreme pain, or permanent or organ, or that results in prolonged hospitalization. (2) Serious physical injury. – Physical injury that causes great pain and suffering. The term includes serious mental injury."
 years of age whose willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class H felony if the act or omission results in serious physical injury to the child. (a6) For purposes of this section, a "grossly negligent omission" in providing care to or supervision of a child includes the failure to report a child as missing to law enforcement as provided in G.S. 14-318.5(b). (b) The felony of child abuse is an offense additional to other civil and criminal provisions and is not intended to repeal or preclude any other sanctions or remedies. (c) Abandonment of an infant less than seven days of age pursuant to G.S. 14-322.3 may be treated as a mitigating factor in sentencing for a conviction under this section involving that infant. (d) The following definitions apply in this section: (1) Serious bodily injury. – Bodily injury that creates a substantial risk of death or that causes serious permanent disfigurement, coma, a permanent or protracted condition that causes extreme pain, or permanent or protracted loss or impairment of the function of any bodily member or organ, or that results in prolonged hospitalization. (2) Serious physical injury. – Physical injury that causes great pain and suffering. The term includes serious mental injury."
 reckless disregard for human life is guilty of a Class H felony if the act or omission results in serious physical injury to the child. (a6) For purposes of this section, a "grossly negligent omission" in providing care to or supervision of a child includes the failure to report a child as missing to law enforcement as provided in G.S. 14-318.5(b). (b) The felony of child abuse is an offense additional to other civil and criminal provisions and is not intended to repeal or preclude any other sanctions or remedies. (c) Abandonment of an infant less than seven days of age pursuant to G.S. 14-322.3 may be treated as a mitigating factor in sentencing for a conviction under this section involving that infant. (d) The following definitions apply in this section: (1) Serious bodily injury. – Bodily injury that creates a substantial risk of death or that causes serious permanent disfigurement, coma, a permanent or protracted condition that causes extreme pain, or permanent or protracted loss or impairment of the function of any bodily member or organ, or that results in prolonged hospitalization. (2) Serious physical injury. – Physical injury that causes great pain and suffering. The term includes serious mental injury."
 serious physical injury to the child. (a6) For purposes of this section, a "grossly negligent omission" in providing care to or supervision of a child includes the failure to report a child as missing to law enforcement as provided in G.S. 14-318.5(b). (b) The felony of child abuse is an offense additional to other civil and criminal provisions and is not intended to repeal or preclude any other sanctions or remedies. (c) Abandonment of an infant less than seven days of age pursuant to G.S. 14-322.3 may be treated as a mitigating factor in sentencing for a conviction under this section involving that infant. (d) The following definitions apply in this section: (1) Serious bodily injury. – Bodily injury that creates a substantial risk of death or that causes serious permanent disfigurement, coma, a permanent or protracted condition that causes extreme pain, or permanent or protracted loss or impairment of the function of any bodily member or organ, or that results in prolonged hospitalization. (2) Serious physical injury. – Physical injury that causes great pain and suffering. The term includes serious mental injury."
 (a6) For purposes of this section, a "grossly negligent omission" in providing care to or supervision of a child includes the failure to report a child as missing to law enforcement as provided in G.S. 14-318.5(b). (b) The felony of child abuse is an offense additional to other civil and criminal provisions and is not intended to repeal or preclude any other sanctions or remedies. (c) Abandonment of an infant less than seven days of age pursuant to G.S. 14-322.3 may be treated as a mitigating factor in sentencing for a conviction under this section involving that infant. (d) The following definitions apply in this section: (1) Serious bodily injury. – Bodily injury that creates a substantial risk of death or that causes serious permanent disfigurement, coma, a permanent or protracted condition that causes extreme pain, or permanent or protracted loss or impairment of the function of any bodily member or organ, or that results in prolonged hospitalization. (2) Serious physical injury. – Physical injury that causes great pain and suffering. The term includes serious mental injury."
 36 supervision of a child includes the failure to report a child as missing to law enforcement as 37 provided in G.S. 14-318.5(b). (b) The felony of child abuse is an offense additional to other civil and criminal 39 provisions and is not intended to repeal or preclude any other sanctions or remedies. 40 (c) Abandonment of an infant less than seven days of age pursuant to G.S. 14-322.3 41 may be treated as a mitigating factor in sentencing for a conviction under this section involving 42 that infant. 43 (d) The following definitions apply in this section: 44 (1) Serious bodily injury. – Bodily injury that creates a substantial risk of death 45 or that causes serious permanent disfigurement, coma, a permanent or 46 protracted condition that causes extreme pain, or permanent or protracted 47 loss or impairment of the function of any bodily member or organ, or that 48 results in prolonged hospitalization. 49 (2) Serious physical injury. – Physical injury that causes great pain and suffering. The term includes serious mental injury."
 provided in G.S. 14-318.5(b). (b) The felony of child abuse is an offense additional to other civil and criminal provisions and is not intended to repeal or preclude any other sanctions or remedies. (c) Abandonment of an infant less than seven days of age pursuant to G.S. 14-322.3 may be treated as a mitigating factor in sentencing for a conviction under this section involving that infant. (d) The following definitions apply in this section: (1) Serious bodily injury. – Bodily injury that creates a substantial risk of death or that causes serious permanent disfigurement, coma, a permanent or protracted condition that causes extreme pain, or permanent or protracted loss or impairment of the function of any bodily member or organ, or that results in prolonged hospitalization. (2) Serious physical injury. – Physical injury that causes great pain and suffering. The term includes serious mental injury."
 (b) The felony of child abuse is an offense additional to other civil and criminal provisions and is not intended to repeal or preclude any other sanctions or remedies. (c) Abandonment of an infant less than seven days of age pursuant to G.S. 14-322.3 may be treated as a mitigating factor in sentencing for a conviction under this section involving that infant. (d) The following definitions apply in this section: (1) Serious bodily injury. – Bodily injury that creates a substantial risk of death or that causes serious permanent disfigurement, coma, a permanent or protracted condition that causes extreme pain, or permanent or protracted loss or impairment of the function of any bodily member or organ, or that results in prolonged hospitalization. (2) Serious physical injury. – Physical injury that causes great pain and suffering. The term includes serious mental injury."
 provisions and is not intended to repeal or preclude any other sanctions or remedies. (c) Abandonment of an infant less than seven days of age pursuant to G.S. 14-322.3 may be treated as a mitigating factor in sentencing for a conviction under this section involving that infant. (d) The following definitions apply in this section: (1) Serious bodily injury. – Bodily injury that creates a substantial risk of death or that causes serious permanent disfigurement, coma, a permanent or protracted condition that causes extreme pain, or permanent or protracted loss or impairment of the function of any bodily member or organ, or that results in prolonged hospitalization. (2) Serious physical injury. – Physical injury that causes great pain and suffering. The term includes serious mental injury."
 (c) Abandonment of an infant less than seven days of age pursuant to G.S. 14-322.3 may be treated as a mitigating factor in sentencing for a conviction under this section involving that infant. (d) The following definitions apply in this section: (1) Serious bodily injury. – Bodily injury that creates a substantial risk of death or that causes serious permanent disfigurement, coma, a permanent or protracted condition that causes extreme pain, or permanent or protracted loss or impairment of the function of any bodily member or organ, or that results in prolonged hospitalization. (2) Serious physical injury. – Physical injury that causes great pain and suffering. The term includes serious mental injury."
 41 may be treated as a mitigating factor in sentencing for a conviction under this section involving 42 that infant. 43 (d) The following definitions apply in this section: 44 (1) Serious bodily injury. – Bodily injury that creates a substantial risk of death 45 or that causes serious permanent disfigurement, coma, a permanent or 46 protracted condition that causes extreme pain, or permanent or protracted 47 loss or impairment of the function of any bodily member or organ, or that 48 results in prolonged hospitalization. 49 (2) Serious physical injury. – Physical injury that causes great pain and suffering. The term includes serious mental injury."
 that infant. (d) The following definitions apply in this section: (1) Serious bodily injury. – Bodily injury that creates a substantial risk of death or that causes serious permanent disfigurement, coma, a permanent or protracted condition that causes extreme pain, or permanent or protracted loss or impairment of the function of any bodily member or organ, or that results in prolonged hospitalization. (2) Serious physical injury. – Physical injury that causes great pain and suffering. The term includes serious mental injury."
 (d) The following definitions apply in this section: (1) Serious bodily injury. – Bodily injury that creates a substantial risk of death or that causes serious permanent disfigurement, coma, a permanent or protracted condition that causes extreme pain, or permanent or protracted loss or impairment of the function of any bodily member or organ, or that results in prolonged hospitalization. (2) Serious physical injury. – Physical injury that causes great pain and suffering. The term includes serious mental injury."
 44 (1) Serious bodily injury. – Bodily injury that creates a substantial risk of death 45 or that causes serious permanent disfigurement, coma, a permanent or 46 protracted condition that causes extreme pain, or permanent or protracted 47 loss or impairment of the function of any bodily member or organ, or that 48 results in prolonged hospitalization. 49 (2) Serious physical injury. – Physical injury that causes great pain and 50 suffering. The term includes serious mental injury."
 or that causes serious permanent disfigurement, coma, a permanent or protracted condition that causes extreme pain, or permanent or protracted loss or impairment of the function of any bodily member or organ, or that results in prolonged hospitalization. Serious physical injury. – Physical injury that causes great pain and suffering. The term includes serious mental injury."
 46 protracted condition that causes extreme pain, or permanent or protracted 47 loss or impairment of the function of any bodily member or organ, or that 48 results in prolonged hospitalization. 49 (2) Serious physical injury. – Physical injury that causes great pain and 50 suffering. The term includes serious mental injury."
 47 48 49 50 47 48 49 40 40 40 41 41 41 42 42 42 43 44 44 44 45 45 46 47 47 47 48 49 49 49 40 < results in prolonged hospitalization. Serious physical injury. – Physical injury that causes great pain and suffering. The term includes serious mental injury."
 49 (2) Serious physical injury. – Physical injury that causes great pain and suffering. The term includes serious mental injury."
50 suffering. The term includes serious mental injury."		· · ·
51 SECTION 4. U.S. 110-102.1(a) reads as rewritten:
	51	SECTION 4. 0.5. $110-102.1(a)$ reads as rewritten.

	General Assembly Of North Carolina	Session 2013
1 2 3 4 5	"(a) Operators Notwithstanding G.S. 14-318.5, operators and staff, G.S. 110-86(7), and G.S. 110-91(8), or any adult present with the approval of t in a child care facility as defined in G.S. 110-86(3) and G.S. 110-106, upon lear which has been placed in their care or presence is missing, shall immediately re child to law enforcement. For purposes of this Article, a child is anyone u	he care provider ning that a child port the missing
6	18.16."
7	SECTION 5. G.S. 14-401.22 reads as rewritten:
8	"§ 14-401.22. Concealment of death; disturbing human remains; dismen	ibering human
9	remains.
10	(a) Any Except as provided in subsection (a1) of this section, any perso
11	intent to conceal the death of a person, fails to notify a law enforcement autho	•
12	or secretly buries or otherwise secretly disposes of a dead human body is gu	ilty of a Class I
13	felony.
14	(a1) Any person who, with the intent to conceal the death of a child, fail
15	enforcement authority of the death or secretly buries or otherwise secretly dis	-
16	child's body is guilty of a Class H felony. For purposes of this subsection, a chi	Id is any person
17	who is less than 16 years of age.
18	(b) Any person who aids, counsels, or abets any other person in conceal	ing the death of
19 20	a person is guilty of a Class A1 misdemeanor.	non romaina hu
20 21	(c) Any person who willfully (i) disturbs, vandalizes, or desecrates hur any means, including any physical alteration or manipulation of the human
21	commits or attempts to commit upon any human remains any act of sexual pene
22	of a Class I felony. This subsection does not apply to:	Juanon is guilty
23 24	(1) Acts by a first responder or others providing medical care.
2 4 25	(1) Acts by a first responder of others providing medical care. (2) Acts committed as part of scientific or medical research	treatment or
26	diagnosis.	i, irealinent, or
27	(3) Acts performed by a licensed funeral director or embalmer	consistent with
28	standard practice.
29	(4) Acts committed for the purpose of extracting body parts in a	accordance with
30	usual and customary standards of medical practice.
31	(5) Acts by a professional archaeologist as defined in G.S.	70-28(4) acting
32	pursuant to the provisions of Article 3 of Chapter 70 of the G
33	(6) Acts committed for any other lawful purpose.
34	(d) Any person who attempts to conceal evidence of the death of anothe	er by knowingly
35	and willfully dismembering or destroying human remains, by any means, incl	uding removing
36	body parts or otherwise obliterating any portion thereof, shall be guilty of a Class
37	(e) Any person who violates subsection subsection (a), (a1), or (d)
38	knowing or having reason to know the body or human remains are of a person	that did not die
39	of natural causes, shall be guilty of a Class D felony.
40	(f) As used in this section, "human remains" means any dead huma
41	condition of decay or any significant part of a dead human body, including any	limb, organ, or
42	bone."
43	SECTION 6. G.S. 14-225 reads as rewritten:
44	"§ 14-225. False reports to law enforcement agencies or officers.
45	(a) Any Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, any po
46	willfully make or cause to be made to a law enforcement agency or of	•
47 49	deliberately misleading or unfounded report, for the purpose of interfering with 48	a law enforcement agency, or to hinder or obstruct any law enforcement	officer in the
49 50	performance of his duty, shall be guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor. (b) A violation of subsection (a) of this section is punishable as a Class	H falony if the
50 51	(b) A violation of subsection (a) of this section is punishable as a Class false, deliberately misleading, or unfounded report relates to a law enforcement	-
51	raise, denotrately misicaung, or unrounded report relates to a law enforceme	an investigation

	General Assembly Of North Carolina Session 2015
1	involving the disappearance of a child as that term is defined in G.S. 14-318.5 or child victim
2	of a Class A, B1, B2, or C felony offense. For purposes of this subsection, a child is any person
3	who is less than 16 years of age."
4	SECTION 7. G.S. 7B-301 reads as rewritten:
5	"§ 7B-301. Duty to report abuse, neglect, dependency, or death due to maltreatment.
6	(a) Any person or institution who has cause to suspect that any juvenile is abused,
7	neglected, or dependent, as defined by G.S. 7B-101, or has died as the result of maltreatment,
8	shall report the case of that juvenile to the director of the department of social services in the
9	county where the juvenile resides or is found. The report may be made orally, by telephone, or
10	in writing. The report shall include information as is known to the person making it including
11	the name and address of the juvenile; the name and address of the juvenile's parent, guardian, or
12	caretaker; the age of the juvenile; the names and ages of other juveniles in the home; the
13	present whereabouts of the juvenile if not at the home address; the nature and extent of any
14	injury or condition resulting from abuse, neglect, or dependency; and any other information
15	which the person making the report believes might be helpful in establishing the need for
16	protective services or court intervention. If the report is made orally or by telephone, the person
17	making the report shall give the person's name, address, and telephone number. Refusal of the 18	person making the report to give a name shall not preclude the department's assessment of the
19	alleged abuse, neglect, dependency, or death as a result of maltreatment.
20	Upon receipt of any report of sexual abuse of the juvenile in a child care facility, the
21	director shall notify the State Bureau of Investigation within 24 hours or on the next workday.
22	If sexual abuse in a child care facility is not alleged in the initial report, but during the course of
23	the assessment there is reason to suspect that sexual abuse has occurred, the director shall
24	immediately notify the State Bureau of Investigation. Upon notification that sexual abuse may
25	have occurred in a child care facility, the State Bureau of Investigation may form a task force to
26	investigate the report.
27	(b) Any person or institution who knowingly or wantonly fails to report the case of a
28	juvenile as required by subsection (a) of this section, or who knowingly or wantonly prevents
29	another person from making a report as required by subsection (a) of this section, is guilty of a
30	Class 1 misdemeanor.
31	(c) A director of social services who receives a report of sexual abuse of a juvenile in a
32	child care facility and who knowingly fails to notify the State Bureau of Investigation of the 33	report pursuant to subsection (a) of this section is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor."

34 SECTION 8. This act becomes effective December 1, 2013, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.