1 A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
2 AN ACT TO INCREASE THE JURISDICTIONAL AMOUNTS IN THE GENERAL COURT
3 OF JUSTICE, TO MAKE ARBITRATION MANDATORY IN CERTAIN CIVIL CASES,
4 AND TO PROVIDE GUIDANCE TO THE COURT FOR THE ASSESSMENT OF
5 COURT COSTS AND ATTORNEYS' FEES IN SMALL CLAIMS MATTERS WHEN 6 AN ARBITRATOR'S DECISION IN FAVOR OF THE APPELLEE IS AFFIRMED ON 7 APPEAL.

8 The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

9 SECTION 1. G.S. 7A-210 reads as rewritten:

10 "§ 7A-210. Small claim action defined.

11 For purposes of this Article a small claim action is a civil action wherein:

- 12 (1) The amount in controversy, computed in accordance with G.S. 7A-243, does 13 not exceed ~~five thousand dollars ($5,000);~~ ten thousand dollars ($10,000);
14 and
15 (2) The only principal relief prayed is monetary, or the recovery of specific 16 personal property, or summary ejectment, or any combination of the 17 foregoing in properly joined claims; and
18 (3) The plaintiff has requested assignment to a magistrate in the manner
19 provided in this Article.

20 The seeking of the ancillary remedy of claim and delivery or an order from the clerk of 21 superior court for the relinquishment of property subject to a lien pursuant to G.S 44A-4(a)
22 does not prevent an action otherwise qualifying as a small claim under this Article from so
23 qualifying."

24 SECTION 2. G.S. 7A-243 reads as rewritten:

25 "§ 7A-243. Proper division for trial of civil actions generally determined by amount in 26 controversy.

27 Except as otherwise provided in this Article, the district court division is the proper division
28 for the trial of all civil actions in which the amount in controversy is ~~ten thousand dollars~~
29 ~~($10,000)~~ twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) or less; and the superior court division is the 30 proper division for the trial of all civil actions in which the amount in controversy exceeds ~~ten~~
31 ~~thousand dollars ($10,000);~~ twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000).

32 For purposes of determining the amount in controversy, the following rules apply whether 33 the relief prayed is monetary or nonmonetary, or both, and with respect to claims asserted by 34 complaint, counterclaim, cross-complaint or third-party complaint:

- 35 (1) The amount in controversy is computed without regard to interest and costs.

- 1 (2) Where monetary relief is prayed, the amount prayed for is in controversy
2 unless the pleading in question shows to a legal certainty that the amount
3 claimed cannot be recovered under the applicable measure of damages. The 4 value of any property seized in attachment, claim and delivery, or other 5 ancillary proceeding, is not in controversy and is not considered in 6 determining the amount in controversy.
- 7 (3) Where no monetary relief is sought, but the relief sought would establish,
8 enforce, or avoid an obligation, right or title, the value of the obligation,
9 right, or title is in controversy. Where the owner or legal possessor of 10 property seeks recovery of property on which a lien is asserted pursuant to 11 G.S. 44A-4(a) the amount in controversy is that portion of the asserted lien
12 which is disputed. The judge may require by rule or order that parties make a 13 good faith estimate of the value of any nonmonetary relief sought.
- 14 (4) a. Except as provided in subparagraph c of this subdivision, where a single 15 party asserts two or more properly joined claims, the claims are aggregated
16 in computing the amount in controversy.
17 b. Except as provided in subparagraph c, where there are two or more
18 parties properly joined in an action and their interests are aligned,
19 their claims are aggregated in computing the amount in controversy.
20 c. No claims are aggregated which are mutually exclusive and in the 21 alternative, or which are successive, in the sense that satisfaction of 22 one claim will bar recovery upon the other.
23 d. Where there are two or more claims not subject to aggregation the 24 highest claim is the amount in controversy.
- 25 (5) Where the value of the relief to a claimant differs from the cost thereof to an 26 opposing party, the higher amount is used in determining the amount in
27 controversy."

28 SECTION 3. G.S. 7A-37.1 reads as rewritten:

29 "§ 7A-37.1. Statewide court-ordered, nonbinding arbitration in certain civil actions.

30 (a) The General Assembly finds that court-ordered, nonbinding arbitration may be a 31 more economical, efficient and satisfactory procedure to resolve certain civil actions than by 32 traditional civil litigation and therefore authorizes court-ordered nonbinding arbitration as an 33 alternative civil procedure, subject to these provisions.

34 (b) The Supreme Court of North Carolina may adopt rules governing this procedure and 35 may supervise its implementation and operation through the Administrative Office of the 36 Courts. These rules shall ensure that no party is deprived of the right to jury trial and that any 37 party dissatisfied with an arbitration award may have trial de novo.

38 (c) ~~This~~ Except as otherwise provided in rules promulgated by the Supreme Court of 39 North Carolina pursuant to subsection (b) of this section, this procedure ~~may~~ shall be employed
40 in all civil actions where claims do not exceed ~~fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000), except that it~~
41 ~~shall not be employed in actions in which the sole claim is an action on an account, including~~
42 ~~appeals from magistrates on such actions~~ twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), unless all
43 parties to the action waive arbitration under this section.

44 (c1) ~~In~~ Except as provided in subsection (c2) of this section, in cases referred to 45 nonbinding arbitration as provided in this section, a fee of one hundred dollars ($100.00) shall 46 be assessed per arbitration, to be divided equally among the parties, to cover the cost of 47 providing arbitrators. Fees assessed under this section shall be paid to the clerk of superior
48 court in the county where the case was filed and remitted by the clerk to the State Treasurer.

49 (c2) In appeals in small claims actions under Article 19 of Chapter 7A of the General
50 Statutes, if (i) the arbitrator finds in favor of the appellee, (ii) the arbitrator's decision is 51 appealed for trial de novo under G.S. 7A-229, and (iii) the arbitrator's decision is affirmed on

1 appeal, then the court shall consider the fact that the arbitrator's decision was affirmed as a
2 significant factor in favor of assessing all court costs and attorneys' fees associated with the 3 case in both the original action and the two appeals, including the arbitration fee assessed under 4 subsection (c1) of this section, against the appellant.

5 (d) This procedure may be implemented in a judicial district, in selected counties within 6 a district, or in any court within a district, if the Director of the Administrative Office of the 7 Courts, and the cognizant Senior Resident Superior Court Judge or the Chief District Court
8 Judge of any court selected for this procedure, determine that use of this procedure may assist
9 in the administration of justice toward achieving objectives stated in subsection (a) of this 10 section in a judicial district, county, or court. The Director of the Administrative Office of the 11 Courts, acting upon the recommendation of the cognizant Senior Resident Superior Court
12 Judge or Chief District Court Judge of any court selected for this procedure, may terminate this 13 procedure in any judicial district, county, or court upon a determination that its use has not
14 accomplished objectives stated in subsection (a) of this section.

15 (e) Arbitrators in this procedure shall have the same immunity as judges from civil 16 liability for their official conduct."

17 SECTION 4. Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 7A-243 as amended by this 18 act, from July 1, 2013, until June 30, 2015, either the district court or the superior court is the 19 proper division for trial of civil actions in which the amount in controversy is between ten
20 thousand dollars ($10,000) and twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000).

21 SECTION 5. This act becomes effective July 1, 2013, and applies to actions filed
22 on or after that date.
